THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, NY 10007

Summer 2015

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to share with you the 2015 edition of the New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

There is no season quite like summer in the City! Across the five boroughs, there are endless opportunities for creation, relaxation and learning, and thanks to the efforts of the Department of Youth and Community Development and its partners, this guide will help neighbors and visitors from all walks of life savor the full flavor of the city and plan their family's fun in the sun. Whether hitting the beach or watching an outdoor movie, dancing under the stars or enjoying a puppet show, exploring the zoo or sketching the skyline, attending library read-alouds or playing chess, New Yorkers are sure to make lasting memories this July and August as they discover a newfound appreciation for their diverse and vibrant home.

My administration is committed to ensuring that all 8.5 million New Yorkers can enjoy and contribute to the creative energy of our city. This terrific resource not only helps us achieve that important goal, but also sustains our status as a hub of culture and entertainment. On behalf of all New Yorkers, Chirlane and I applaud DYCD and its collaborators for putting it together and extend our best wishes for a safe, healthy and inspiring summer.

Sincerely,

Bill de Blasio
Mayor

Dear Fellow New Yorkers:

Another summer is here, and to help you navigate the many offerings in our great city, I am pleased to present the 2015 New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

Whether you're looking for the hottest concerts, film festivals and street fairs, or need to beat the heat at one of our many pools and beaches, there are thousands of attractions and events that are just a quick walk or subway or bus ride away.

This guide is a partnership between New York City agencies, museums, youth groups, libraries, arts organizations and cultural institutions. I thank them for helping to connect our young people and their families with free or low cost offerings in all five boroughs.

On behalf of the Department of Youth and Community Development, I wish you all a fun, healthy and safe summer!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bill Chong". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of "Bill" and "Chong" being capitalized and prominent.

Observing on the High Line

7:30pm – 9:30pm

The High Line is a spectacular setting, with a very low horizon to the west. It overlooks the Hudson River.

The nearest subway station is the 14th Street, Eighth Avenue stop on the A, C, and E trains. From there it's only a block-and-a-half walk to 10th Avenue. There is also a 14th Street crosstown bus. If you're planning to drive, keep in mind that the area around the High Line is very busy at night—lots of restaurants, etc. Parking on Friday or Saturday evenings is nearly impossible.

We encourage anyone wishing to bring a telescope or binoculars to do so. This event is likely to be canceled if the sky is cloudy.

City Parks Foundation SummerStage

St. Mary's Park, St. Mary's Street between St. Ann's and Jackson Avenue, Bronx, NY

Presents: Ismael Miranda

7:00pm – 9:00pm

Ismael Miranda aka "El niño bonito de la Salsa" (The pretty boy of Salsa) always wanted to be a musician, and by age 11 had already formed two groups: "The 4J's and Little Junior" and "The Class Mates." He sang and played conga for the group and they were good enough to appear on Jerry Lewis' Muscular Dystrophy Telethon. Miranda also grew up and played in his first bands with Jazz percussionist Orlando "Q" Rodriguez and piano player Mark Diamond. In 1967, when Miranda was 17 years old, he made his recording debut and made such an impression on bandleader Larry Harlow, that he was hired as Larry's lead singer. He later joined the Fania All Stars and went with this band on tour to Europe, Asia and Latin America. In 1973, he formed his own band called "Orquesta Revelación" and recorded "Así se compone un son" under the Fania record label. With this song, Miranda entered the new salsa craze which was sweeping the nation and was then baptized as "El Niño Bonito de la Salsa" ("The Pretty Boy of Salsa"). He went on to launch his own record label "IM Records" and continues to perform nationally to this day.

Shows for Days

Mitzi E. Newhouse Theater, Manhattan, NY

8:00pm

When a playwright looks back at his beginnings in the theater and decides to chronicle those experiences in a play, all sorts of things can happen. If you're Douglas Carter Beane, it's bound to bring a measure of gimlet-eyed reflection, a large dollop of self-deprecation and a heaping dose of hilarity. That mix is exactly what charmed us so about his new play, Shows For Days.

Bronx Culture Trolley

Hostos Community College

450 Grand Concourse near 149th

5:00pm – 9:00pm

A program of the Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA), the First Wednesday Bronx Culture Trolley was initially conceived as the first action toward creating the South Bronx "Cultural Corridor," an arts-related economic development plan positioning the lower Grand Concourse as a "Gateway to the Arts in the Bronx." The trolley provides people with a fun way to get around and attend cultural venues that they might not otherwise have visited.

(poles must be returned by 4:00pm)

Sunday: 10:00am - 2:00pm

(poles must be returned by 2:00pm)

Catch-and-release fishing at the Harlem Meer is a favorite family and community pastime. Fishing poles are available to borrow at the Charles A.

Dana Center, located on the north shore of the Meer. Picture ID required; instruction and bait (corn kernels) are provided with the poles. The Harlem Meer is a thriving aquatic ecosystem that supports a wide variety of fish, waterfowl, turtles, plants and microorganisms. Some of the fish living in the Meer include largemouth bass, pumpkinseed sunfish, bluegill sunfish, carp and chain pickerel.

Bloomingtondale Park

693 Ramona Avenue (Lenevar Avenue)
Staten Island, NY 10309

Staten Island's newest addition to its vast park inventory, Bloomingtondale Park provides the first ball fields ever built on parks property south of Richmond Avenue. Most of the 138-acre park was left natural and passive for wildlife. Walking trails have been included for hiking enthusiasts, as well as scenic waterways. A portion of the park has been re-shaped to offer a baseball field, softball field, soccer field, basketball courts and a playground. A comfort station is also part of the amenities included in the new Bloomingtondale Park, with stainless steel toilets and a modern ventilation system.

Clay Pit Ponds State Park

83 Nielsen Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10309
(718) 967-1976

The 260-plus-acre park holds a mixture of swamps, bogs, ponds, sand barrens, mature woodlands and spring fed streams. The abundant water supply supports a plethora of wildlife including many species of birds, reptiles, amphibians, and mammals. Facilities include hiking paths, horse trails and an administration building. Free environmental education programs are offered on Saturday. The park is open year-round.

Walker Park

88 Delafield Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10301

Walker Park holds a distinguished place in the history of New York cricket and tennis. Initially known as Livingston Park, the name was changed in 1934 to honor Lieutenant Randolph Walker Jr., who died in World War I. Walker was a distinguished member of the local cricket club, and was a good friend of Eugenius H. Outerbridge (1860–1932), the first chairman of the Port Authority (served 1921–1924).

The change was the result of a petition sent to Alderman Dennis V. Corcoran by the officers of the Randolph Walker Post of the American Legion.

Wolfe's Pond Park

245 Chester Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10312

As one of Staten Island's largest parks, Wolfe's Pond Park wears many different hats. To some, it is a beautiful beach. To others, it is a wildlife and plant preserve. To still others, it is a recreation area with space to run, jump, and climb. Choose Wolfe's Pond Park, and choose your own adventure!

NYC Youth Connect is a one-stop shop for all youth-related resources in NYC. Youth Connect has a toll-free hotline and utilizes web-based strategies to increase access to and visibility of New York City's opportunities for youth, families and community organizations. Youth Connect Resource Specialists are trained to connect callers and correspondents to the services they need. Youth Connect's database includes more than 8,000 community resources from DYCD-funded agencies as well as other public, nonprofit, and private sector organizations. Youth Connect receives over 55,000 phone calls annually, and staff utilizes AT&T's Language Line to communicate in over 180 languages.
