

Ladders for Leaders

Ladders for Leaders (“Ladders”) is a nationally recognized program that connects companies and organizations with outstanding NYC students to their paid summer internship programs that seeks competitive candidates and provide meaningful work experiences.

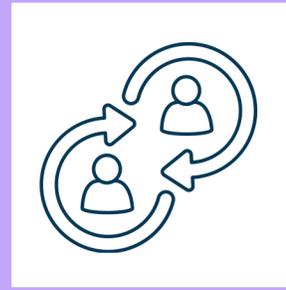

Through Ladders for Leaders, employers...

Connect with a pipeline of young and local talent

Access a rich alumni network for early career recruitment

Develop mentorship opportunities

Interested in becoming an employer partner? Fill out our form: tinyurl.com/L4LHire

How the program works:

- Ladders partners are employers with existing, advanced and structured internships.
- Spots are reserved to Ladders candidates recruited by our community-based organizations (CBOs).
- CBOs share resumes of experience resumes and employers make final hiring decisions.

Ladders interns are:

- NYC residents ages of 16 and 24 currently enrolled in school.
- Academically high-achieving with previous work experience, and
- Ambitious, curious, and excited to work with your organization!

