

Literacy Re-Issue Chat_ Pre-proposal Conference July 31, 202 (1pm)

13:12:19 From Latrisha Williams-Wint : Good afternoon

13:15:03 From Cristobal Kubick : Good afternoon. Cristobal from Aid For Life.

13:34:33 From Ekram Alrowmeim : Ekram (Women's Empowerment Coalition of NYC)
Does our office need to be located in the proposed NTA to be eligible for this fund?

13:34:39 From Pedro Sanchez : Pedro Sancez, Coalicion Mexicana, Our account in Passport is not working

13:35:12 From Daniela Diaz Rincon : Hey there, Daniela Diaz Rincon from AMPHS, sorry if this was laid out but does this proposal not include ESOL? Or will there be another meeting for ESOL programs?

13:35:30 From Sarah Morgridge : Sarah Morgridge question about the content of the ELL instruction: I understood this to be ELL classes with a specific focus on workforce development OR parent engagement OR healthcare OR civic engagement

13:37:13 From Cristobal Kubick : Hi, thank for the presentation. Regarding the subcontracting option, how is it envisioned? Can organizations outside the proposed NTA operate as subcontracted organizations? What kind of services are they expected to provide?

13:38:33 From Evelyn Herrera : Hi, I'm Evelyn from Success-ID, a certified MWBE specializing in education and workforce development. Since we're not eligible to apply as a prime, what's the best way to connect with potential nonprofit leads as a subcontractor?
We're already registered in PASSPort and currently deliver financial literacy, digital literacy, career readiness, and financial account activation services across NYC schools. We'd love to collaborate on this Adult Literacy initiative. You can reach me at eherrera@success-id.com or (929) 648-0952.

13:39:42 From Cristobal Kubick : Same here! Cristobal Kubick
(ckubick@aidforaids.org)

13:40:23 From Larissa Phillips : Piggy-backing on Evelyn's comment. Larissa Phillips from Volunteer Literacy Project. We provide basic literacy tutoring for adults.
