This grievance procedure may be used by anyone who wishes to file a grievance alleging discrimination by New York City Emergency Management (“NYCEM”) on the basis of disability with respect to matters other than employment.

The grievance should be in writing and contain information about the alleged discrimination such as the name, address, and telephone number of the grievant, as well as the location, date, and description of the complaint or alleged violation of the ADA. Alternative means of filing grievances, such as in-person interviews or an audio recording of the grievance, may be made available for persons with disabilities upon request.

The grievance should be submitted as soon as possible but no later than sixty (60) calendar days after the date of the alleged violation of the ADA to:

NOTICE UNDER THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Effective Communication: NYCEM will, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in NYCEM's programs, services, and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille, and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing, or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: NYCEM will make reasonable modifications to policies and procedures to ensure that people with disabilities have equal access to all NYCEM programs, services, and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcome in all NYCEM offices, even where pets are generally prohibited.

Anyone who requires an auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or a modification of policies or procedures to participate in a NYCEM program, service, or activity, should contact the ADA Coordinator by mail, email or telephone at: NYC Emergency Management, 165 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, NY 11201, adacoordinator@oem.nyc.gov, or 718-422-4669, as soon as possible but no later than three (3) business days before the scheduled event or activity.

The ADA does not require NYCEM to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services or that would impose on it an undue financial or administrative burden.

Complaints that a NYCEM program, service, or activity is not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to NYCEM's ADA Coordinator by mail, email, or telephone at: NYC Emergency Management, 165 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, NY 11201, adacoordinator@oem.nyc.gov, or 718-422-4669.

NYCEM will not impose a surcharge to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy, such as retrieving items from locations that are open to the public but are not accessible to persons who use wheelchairs.
