

Non-primary residence surcharge Majority interest affidavit

For the purposes of establishing an exemption from the Surcharge on Property that Does Not Serve as a Primary Residence, please use this affidavit to establish that you are a person who has a majority interest in a partnership, limited liability company (LLC), or corporation that owns a property or holds shares of stock representing a dwelling unit in a cooperative corporation. This form should be completed by an officer of the partnership, LLC, or corporation.

When you submit the completed affidavit to the Department of Finance, you must also include:

- With respect to an LLC, the operating agreement for such LLC
- With respect to a corporation, the articles of incorporation for such corporation
- With respect to a partnership, the partnership agreement for such partnership
