2023 UTILITY PROPERTY (REUC) INCOME AND EXPENSE Including Utility-Related Equipment Reporting Instructions

GENERAL INFORMATION

Owners of income-producing properties with an actual assessed value of more than $40,000 are required to file Real Property Income and Expense statements ("RPIE") with the Department of Finance ("Finance") annually, unless the properties are specifically excluded by law from the filing requirements. Owners of power plants, generators, telecommunication lines and other utility-type equipment are required to file RPIE statements, regardless of owner occupancy. This includes the use and cost of all such property owned, retired and added to inventory in the City of New York at the end of the reporting year.

IMPORTANT FILING INFORMATION

- Deadline for submission for all RPIE filings is June 3, 2024.
- All filers are legally required to file electronically
- The failure to timely file a complete and accurate RPIE is subject to penalty. Property owners should also be aware that they will lose the right to a hearing at the New York City Tax Commission if they do not file the RPIE on time.

CUSTOMER ASSISTANCE

If you have any questions not covered in the Utility Property (REUC) Income and Expense filing Instructions or on the Finance web site, please email Finance at utilityrpie@finance.nyc.gov.

REUC RPIE-2023 REMINDERS

- Equipment with zero-dollar opening balance: Do not remove lines of equipment from Other Equipment filings, even if the opening balance is zero. Report any changes to this equipment, if applicable, or leave it as is if no changes have taken place. Do not remove lines of equipment from the filing.
- Cost of equipment from inventory: Please remember to list the cost of equipment used from inventory in your reporting.
- Change of ownership: Let us know as soon as possible when property ownership changes by emailing reuc@finance.nyc.gov. If you need to report that the equipment was sold or owned by another entity, please add a note in the comment, as well.

FILING HIGHLIGHTS

● YOU CAN FILE FOR ALL YOUR REUC PROPERTY IN ONE FILING

There is no need to file separate RPIE statements by each lot or each borough. We've structured the REUC RPIE-2023 filing so that you can enter all of the information into one filing per billing entity. If you use separate billing names and EINs, you need to file for each EIN.

● STARTING YOUR FILING

Choose the "REUC for RPIE" filing option at nyc.gov/rpie and then enter ONE of the billing (pseudo) BBLs you own. In Section D-F, you will be asked to complete a Structures and Equipment spreadsheet that is pre-populated with all the REUC properties you own. You must complete the "REUC for RPIE" filing for REUC property. Other filings for REUC property will not count as fulfilling your obligation to file an RPIE statement.

● USING THE STRUCTURES AND EQUIPMENT SPREADSHEET

You will need to download, complete and then upload the Structures and Equipment spreadsheet to your RPIE filing. The spreadsheet is provided in .csv format, but can be completed in any spreadsheet format. Please note that it must be converted to Excel before being uploaded for filing. Also, you only need to complete certain sections of the spreadsheet, depending on your property type (see page 3).

● COMPLETE FILING

You must submit a complete a RPIE-2023 Structures and Equipment spreadsheet or all of your REUC property. Do not delete, add or move columns or submit another report or a prior year's report in lieu of the RPIE-2023 Structures and Equipment spreadsheet. Be sure to report all costs and information requested. Incomplete filing may be deemed non-compliant.

● REUC RPIE COMPLIANCE

To be considered compliant, your REUC RPIE-2023 statement must be:

- Submitted using the "REUC for RPIE" online form (other forms are not acceptable for utility property statements);
- Filled out completely, including uploading the completed 2023 "Structures and Equipment spreadsheet" (other reports, modified or previous years' spreadsheets will not be accepted);
- All spreadsheet columns that are required for the equipment/property type must be completed (incomplete submissions are non-compliant);
- Completed and submitted by the June 3, 2024 deadline (be sure to electronically sign and submit your statement by then).

● CHANGES IN OWNERSHIP

- New property: Add lines to the Structures and Equipment spreadsheet for any new property.
- Sold property: If you do not own an REUC property listed on your Structures and Equipment spreadsheet, please let us know at utilityrpie@finance.nyc.gov.

ACCESSING THE RPIE FOR REUC APPLICATION

1. Access the RPIE application at nyc.gov/rpie.
2. Click on the "RPIE for REUC (2023)" link.
3. You will then be asked to enter one billing (pseudo) borough/block/lot identifier to start the filing. This billing BBL appears on your property tax bill and notice of property value (NOPV). You can also use the link provided to look up billing BBLs affiliated with REUC idents. The filing process starts with the identification of one billing BBL. If you are required to file for additional billing BBLs under the same entity name and EIN, you can do so with one submission.
4. After entering the billing BBL, you will be asked to choose an action (create, continue or amend a filing, etc.) and to create or enter a password for the filing. To enter a new password, highlight the password field and enter a unique password. Please note and retain this password, as you will need it if you wish to amend a filing or complete a previously started filing.

CHECK YOUR MAILING ADDRESS: All owners must maintain a current mailing address for each property with the NYC Department of Finance. To check your mailing address for this property, look at the latest property tax bill. Mailing addresses can be updated at www.nyc.gov/changemailingaddress.

Owners must provide their Social Security Number on this form under the authority of section 11-102.1 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York. Social Security Numbers are required to facilitate the processing of real property income and expense data for tax administration purposes. The Social Security Numbers may be further disclosed to other departments or agencies, or to persons employed by such departments or agencies, only for tax administration purposes, or as otherwise provided by law or judicial order.

  - Calendar Year
  - Fiscal Year
  - Partial Year
2. Indicate the reporting period by entering the months and years covered. Calendar year reporting for RPIE 2023 should cover January 2023 to December 2023.

SECTION D-F – STRUCTURES AND EQUIPMENT SPREADSHEET

You are required to report on all utility structure and equipment for all the billing (pseudo) BBLs owned by your entity during the reporting period. To facilitate reporting, all required filers will see a file link to a provider-specific spreadsheet (.csv format) that will help you identify and report on the information needed.

Please Note:

1. You need to download the spreadsheet and save it to your computer. The file is in a .csv format, but can be saved as any spreadsheet format to your own computer.
2. Once you have completed the spreadsheet and are ready to upload to the RPIE application, you must save and submit the completed spreadsheet as an Excel file.
3. Do not add or delete columns from the spreadsheet. Do not submit another form or a previous spreadsheet in lieu of the current spreadsheet.
4. The spreadsheet is pre-populated with the inventory we have tied to the reporting entity. Update what is pre-populated, as needed. Add new lines to the spreadsheet to include new (not previously reported) utility structures and pieces of equipment at each location.
5. Each separate account should have a line in the spreadsheet reflecting a unique structure or piece of equipment.
6. In some cases, original cost and opening balances are also prepopulated. These should not be changed or replaced by the filer.
7. Utility assessment relies heavily on cost-based reporting. Be certain to report the cost of items requested. Substantially complete and accurate reporting is required under the law governing RPIE.

SECTION D – STRUCTURES AND EQUIPMENT REPORTING:

Complete one line for each assessable structure or piece of equipment for each company account you own.

Vendor number (Column A). This is an internal Finance indicator and should be ignored.

Note on Other Equipment reporting: All REUC RPIE reporting is for inventory reconciliation. It is not for accounting purposes. Cost change is the cost of adding or removing a piece of equipment. Said cost includes the cost of the piece of equipment being purchased or used from inventory, the associated labor cost for equipment installation or removal, and the rental cost (if any) of additional equipment (e.g., a crane) needed for equipment installation or removal. Because reporting is for inventory reconciliation, there should not be any negative ending balances.

1. Borough (Column B). Provide the borough indicated on the property tax bill:
  - 1 - Manhattan
  - 2 - Bronx
  - 3 - Brooklyn/Kings
  - 4 - Queens

7. ZIP (Column H). Provide the ZIP code where the equipment is located.

Vacant land with no utility equipment or improvement (a separate category) should be noted in the comments section on that line.
