

Owner and Tenant Resource Fairs

Bring Housing Resources to your Community!

The New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development's (HPD) Owner Engagement and Events team partners with local elected officials, community groups and sister agencies to organize virtual and in-person Owner and Tenant Resource Fairs to provide information and direct services to your community. Participants can receive information from non-profit and government agencies to best serve their needs.

Examples of information and Services provided at the fairs:

Tenants Resource Fairs:

- Rental assistance opportunities
- Scie and Drie
- Eviction Prevention
- Housing Discrimination
- Affordable Housing opportunities

Owners Resource Fairs:

- Low- and no-interest loans to rehabilitate property
- Assistance with property taxes and water fees
- Foreclosure prevention and legal help
- Certificate of occupancy, architectural plans approval elevator inspections
- Garbage and Recycling, and more!

How you can work with us

Elected officials or local community groups should contact HPD to hold an Owner or Tenant Resource Fair for their community. HPD will organize and put the fair together. If you are interested in partnering with HPD to host a fair, please email the Owner Engagement and Events team office at oe@hpd.nyc.gov. upcoming fairs are on HPD's website: nyc.gov/hpdevents
