

Commission on Community Reinvestment and the Closure of Rikers Island Public Hearing

Established by Local Law in 2019, the Commission on Community Reinvestment and the Closure of Rikers Island is committed to the equitable reinvestment of savings from the closure of Rikers Island for justice-involved and justice-impacted communities.

Speakers will be called in the order that they signed up, and you may speak for up to three (3) minutes. The hearing is an opportunity to share your comments on how the city can invest in justice-impacted neighborhoods and communities. The staff's role is to listen and write down your comments.
