Focus Group

Discussion

The New York City Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) invests in programs and services that support our communities. We're creating space for young fathers to be heard, supported, and empowered.

Join our Young Fathers Focus Group—a welcoming and confidential space for dads ages 19 and under to share their experiences, challenges, and successes. Whether you're a new dad or have been on the journey for a while, your voice matters.

Young & Thriving Dads 19 And Under!

What you can expect:

- You will be with other individuals in person at the specified location.
- A moderator from DYCD's staff will facilitate the discussion and ask questions.
- A notetaker will document the discussion without recording names.
- Your responses will remain confidential.
- No names will be included in any notes or reports.
