During the reporting period, IDNYC disclosed information concerning one (1) applicant to law enforcement. Such disclosure was pursuant to a subpoena.

- 8) The number of occurrences of fraud or other criminal activity related to issuance of the New York City identity card:

Since the program's launch in January 2015, 688 cases have been detected to have a high likelihood of suspected fraud. In this reporting period, the program's integrity review process detected 4 instances in which an individual sought to obtain an IDNYC card under another name and/or identity and all 4 applications were denied. Any such integrity instances are detected by the program's duplicate image search technology, which automatically seeks to match the photographs taken of new applicants against the database of previous IDNYC cardholders or applicants to prevent the improper issuance of a second IDNYC card to a single applicant. If there is a perceived match, investigators on the program integrity team then proceed with an investigation in accordance with program protocols. There were no additional instances where the program's integrity review process detected an individual seeking to obtain an IDNYC card with documents that were suspicious and could not be authenticated. All 4 applications were denied. Where possible, in cases where the program suspects an individual is applying for a card under someone else's identity, the potential victim is notified by letter about the improper use of their identity information.

9) The City's efforts to conduct outreach to prospective applicants relating to the New York City identity card program:

In the Third Quarter of 2025, MOIA's outreach team provided IDNYC education and outreach assistance for enrollment with communities throughout New York City working in cooperation with the Department of Social Services' Outreach team. MOIA's External Affairs team promoted IDNYC at more than 228 Day of Action events hosted by at least one community liaison throughout the five boroughs (Bronx 46, Kings 61, New York 35, Queens 81 Richmond 5) with a focus on immigrant communities. 46,563 IDNYC informational materials were distributed in more than 21 different languages, reaching more than 10,956 constituent contacts.

The MOIA outreach team reached hundreds of individuals at events in partnerships with sister agencies, Metro Plus, city shelters, HERRCS and other community stakeholders across the city. During this quarter, MOIA assisted with 2,631 application submissions.

Days of Action are dedicated to serving the diverse constituents at pop-up sites, Community-Based Organizations, and collaboration with Elected Officials who advocate for the immigrant community across all five Boroughs of New York City. MOIA has two primary areas of focus in NYC: geography and demographics. Geographically, MOIA's mission is to reach every immigrant community within the five boroughs, ensuring comprehensive service coverage.

MOIA provides communities with IDNYC informational materials to facilitate both the enrollment and renewal processes, available in over 21 languages. To meet the language needs of immigrant New Yorkers, events are staffed with multilingual personnel and interpreters, ensuring effective communication and support.

During this quarter, IDNYC enrolled 518 New Yorkers at pop-up sites and aboard the Mobile Command Center, IDNYC On-the-Go. IDNYC held these pop-up events at Woodhull Hospital, Achievement First in Brownsville, and at various Open Streets events throughout the five boroughs.

The Department of Social Services' Office of Community Outreach Team (OCO) provides education and training for the community. This quarter, OCO conducted 3 training sessions, with a total of 25 attendees representing 20 different Community Based Organizations.

10) The City's efforts to promote acceptance of the New York City identification card by banks and other public and private institutions:

The program continues to seek new ways to expand the card's acceptance and utility, including ensuring the continued acceptance by benefit and cultural partners, financial institutions, and by the NYPD and other government agencies for identification.

11) The types of services, other than City services, for which the New York City identification card is permitted as acceptable proof of identity and residency:

During this quarter, IDNYC cultural partners issued a total of 3,539 free one-year memberships, with 798,434 memberships issued since January 2015.

Libraries

The City's partnership with the Brooklyn, New York, and Queens Public Library systems allows New Yorkers to use their IDNYC card as a single, citywide library card. Since January 2015, over 62,844 cardholders have added this functionality to their IDNYC. Additionally, IDNYC continues to work with the Brooklyn, Queens, and New York Public Libraries to promote their virtual content.

Health

The IDNYC card continues to facilitate access to better health and savings.

- At Food Bazaar stores in Queens, Brooklyn, and the Bronx, IDNYC cardholders saved over $57,000 in discounted grocery purchases this quarter, bringing total grocery savings to more than $5 million dollars ($5,496,232.15) since January 2015.
- IDNYC's partnership with Health + Hospitals (H+H) allows cardholders to link their IDNYC cards to their H+H accounts, thereby speeding up the check-in process for subsequent appointments. Since this partnership began in May of 2016, 11,619 cardholders have linked their IDNYC cards to their H+H accounts. Additionally, IDNYC has been a crucial tool for registering for and receiving COVID-19 vaccines and care.
- Since January 2017, parents, guardians, and other individuals have been able to use their IDNYC card online, at My Vaccine Record (MVR), to verify their identity to access their own or their children's official immunization records, including for COVID-19, from the NYC Department of Health & Mental Hygiene's (DOHMH) Citywide Immunization Registry (CIR). Parents can check which vaccinations their child still needs and can print out a vaccination history to complete medical forms for childcare, school registration, college admission, camp enrollment, and more. To date 19,693 cardholders have accessed vaccine records using an IDNYC card. During this quarter, 326 cardholders accessed MVR using their IDNYC to retrieve their vaccination records.

Veterans

Since IDNYC launched the Veteran Designation in July 2015, 15,529 veterans have chosen to have this special marker on their IDNYC cards to indicate service in the U.S. Armed Services. The designation entitles veterans to exclusive benefits, better connects veterans to the services and discounts they deserve and is an expression of the City's gratitude and respect for those who have served our country.

Finally, IDNYC continues to field inquiries from public and private institutions eager to partner with us. Our goal is to make meaningful additions to the program that reflect IDNYC's vision of greater access to government services, financial services, education, cultural benefits, and health and wellness for all New Yorkers.
