This application is also done specifically given the current SLA guidance, with the requirement that all Licensees have the Method of Operation on the actual License. Not only is this proper by law, it is also necessary to be in full and complete compliance with all SLA rules, given the current heightened scrutiny and enforcement.

Please see information from an SLA email below. All entertainment offerings have to be specified on the License.

Subject: Entertainment Guidance

"To all licensees with on premises service privileges,

We would like to take a moment to remind licensees (that may have the privilege of providing entertainment) of what has currently been deemed safe in terms of live entertainment.

If you would like to provide music, please also take a moment to note whether your license allows for such. An on premises license may provide ... music so long as the type of music is explicitly permissible on the license certificate. "
