Hope this picture above is to prove that our neighbors who signed to agree to our "Petition to Support Proposed Liquor License" with the updated business hours and days by my handwriting which I fixed before I started getting signatures on July 28th, 2024. I believe that it is fair to show CB3 members that I did not change the hours and days after I got all the signatures on my "Petition to Support Proposed Liquor License".

The map displays the Lower East Side neighborhood in New York City, bounded by Bowery to the west, East River to the east, and Canal Street to the south. Key streets shown include Bowery, Chrystie St, Forsyth St, Eldridge St, Allen St, Ludlow St, Essex St, Norfolk St, Suffolk St, and Clinton St. Landmarks and points of interest are marked with numbered dots (1-41) and labels. Notable locations include the New Museum, The Bowery Ballroom, Sara D. Roosevelt Park, and the International Center of Photography Museum. A search bar at the top right allows for finding specific areas. Navigation controls at the bottom left include a compass, zoom in (+) and zoom out (-) buttons, and a scale bar. A legend at the bottom right identifies symbols for public transit, parks, and other features. The map is credited to Google Maps and dated 2024.
