The New York Times

VOI, CLXXIV No. 60,809 TUESDAY, AUGUST 19, 2025

During his 10-minute news conference on Monday, President Trump said that the federal government would be next to the capital.

Journalists' Killings Elevate Israel-Qatar Tension

By NIVAN HERSH
The Israeli conflict has become a global media event, with journalists' deaths in Gaza and the West Bank raising concerns about press freedom and the safety of reporters. The killing of a British journalist in Gaza, the 35th death of a journalist in the conflict, has intensified the debate over the role of the media in conflict zones. The United Nations has called for an immediate end to the violence against journalists, and the International Committee of the Red Cross has urged for the protection of press freedom.

Gaza City Plan Faces Doubts

By NIVAN HERSH
The Israeli government's plan to rebuild Gaza City has faced significant opposition from international organizations and human rights groups. The plan, which includes the construction of a new city center and the relocation of thousands of residents, has been criticized for its lack of transparency and its potential to exacerbate the humanitarian crisis in Gaza. The United Nations has called for a more inclusive and transparent process for the reconstruction of Gaza.

Nation Critical to Gaza Talks Is Also Backer of AI Assaults

By NIVAN HERSH
The United Arab Emirates, a key mediator in the Gaza conflict, has been accused of supporting Israel's military operations in Gaza. The UAE has provided logistical support and funding for Israeli military operations, and it has been criticized for its role in the conflict. The United Nations has called for the UAE to stop its support for Israel's military operations in Gaza.

TRUMP PRO... FEDERAL CO... OF THE D.C. P...

By NIVAN HERSH
President Trump's decision to fire the director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has raised concerns about the independence of the agency. The firing of the director, who had been in the position for over a decade, has been seen as a move to weaken the FBI's ability to investigate and report on the president's actions. The United States Department of Justice has defended the firing, stating that it was a routine personnel decision.

During his 75-minute news conference on Monday, President Trump said 800 National Guard troops would be sent to the capital.

TRUMP P... FEDERAL CO... OF THE D.C. PO

Citing... Criminals, Alth

WASHINGTON — President Trump on Monday declared federal control of the police force in Washington for 30 days and mobilized 800 National Guard troops to fight crime in a city that he claimed was overrun with "blood-thirsty criminals," even though crime numbers in the nation's capital are falling.

During a 75-minute news conference, during which he was flanked by several members of his cabinet, Mr. Trump took the lectern in the White House briefing room and said he also intended to clear out the capital's homeless population, without saying how officials would do it, or detailing where those people would go.

Armed with papers that showed crime statistics, Mr. Trump denounced the murder rate in Washington compared with other global cities but ignored the fact that violent crime has fallen recently in the nation's capital. The violent crime rate surged in 2022, but it fell 16 percent from that year to 2024, according to the city's Metropolitan Police Department.

Instead, Mr. Trump painted a picture of the city as an urban hellhole, repeating some of the incendiary language he has used to describe conditions in the largely liberal cities in urban, but his announcement on Monday was an extraordinary exercise of power over an American city. Warning of "caravans of migrants" rampaging the city across the country, Mr. Trump said he would send in troops to clear out the homeless population, without saying how officials would do it, or detailing where those people would go.

Journalists' Killings Elevate Israel-Qatar Tension

By VINAY NERIM
JERUSALEM, South Arabia — An Israeli airstrike that deliberately killed several Al Jazeera journalists has reignited tensions between Israel and Qatar, which is also a central mediator in talks to end the war in Gaza.

The Israeli attack on Sunday, which took place in Gaza City, killed three Al Jazeera journalists, the news agency reported. The correspondents were shot while covering the conflict in Gaza. The journalists were identified as Mohammed al-Khatib and Mohammed al-Khatib, and an unnamed third person. Israeli state officials said the others were killed.

The deliberate targeting of journalists by Israel in the Gaza strip is the latest in a series of attacks on the press. The prime minister of Qatar, the prime minister of Qatar, said that the killing of journalists was a "serious violation of international law" and that the international community's inability to stop this "tragedy" was a "disgrace."

The attack undermined Israel's complex relationship with Qatar, which is the Israeli leadership relies on as a back channel to Hamas, the Palestinian militant group. The killing of journalists also undermined the international community's ability to stop this tragedy.

Gaza City Plan Faces Doubts

Israel Critics Say Goal of Capture Is Unclear

JERUSALEM — Israeli officials plan to capture Gaza City this week, but some military strategists and Israeli lawmakers are questioning the plan. Some are saying the plan is unrealistic and that the goal is unclear.
