Proceedings

MR. HATCH: Thank you. Is there a member who wishes to make a statement or ask a question on this matter?

MR. FRIEDMAN: Good afternoon. Comptroller Stringer supports the approval of Resolutions No. 1 and 2, which authorizes the change of control of the cable television franchise held by Cablevision Systems in Brooklyn and the Bronx to Altice. Approval is based on Altice's promise to comply with all of the provisions of the existing franchises, including critical clauses concerning investment and broadband and public access television.

Comptroller Stringer is pleased that Altice has taken efforts to close the digital divide through a new high-speed Internet offering for low-income New Yorkers and free high-speed Internet for all Brooklyn and Bronx libraries. The Comptroller is also grateful for Altice's commitment to ensuring that the Bronx and Brooklyn will remain a leading media

2 market in the United States on public
3 access broadcasting by continuing to 4 provide public educational government
5 access channel fees to BRIC, at least at 6 current levels, regardless of changes in 7 technology. The Comptroller has long
8 recognized the extremely important role
9 played by public access broadcasting,
10 which provides diverse neighborhood level
11 programming that New Yorkers cannot find 12 anywhere else, and serve populations that
13 otherwise have no meaningful opportunities
14 in the field of media making, education,
15 and distribution.

16 In addition, the Comptroller
17 congratulates Altice and Communication
18 Workers of America for their recent
19 agreement, which guarantees that no
20 customer-facing jobs will be lost because 21 of this merger. We are hopeful that this 22 agreement will pave the way for Altice and 23 the Public Service Commission to identify 24 and implement an employment plan that's in 25 the public interest of all New Yorkers.

Proceedings

Altice has committed to us to build on Cablevision's long-standing commitments to support a work force that reflects the extraordinary diversity of the Empire State, from the board room to customer representatives, and we hope that the agreement with the PSC reflects this commitment.

The Comptroller urges Altice to adopt policies that ensure competitive video market place for customers, including the commitment not to charge usage-based prices or impose data caps in the moratorium on charging Internet connection fees to online video providers, which deliver large volumes of Internet traffic to broadband customers. These consumer-friendly rules, which were recently agreed to by Charter Communications as condition to its purchase of Time Warner Cable, are consistent with the principles of net neutrality, and the democratic principles that support a free and open Internet.
