

Dear Candidate:

As a candidate for the position of Police Officer, presently undergoing a character investigation to determine your suitability for employment, you are hereby informed that it is unlawful for you to offer, give, or agree to give any money, gift, or service in any form in an attempt to influence the outcome of the determination. The member of the Department conducting your investigation has been instructed to make an arrest if any such influence is attempted. Fraternalization between police candidates and members of the service who are assigned to the Character Assessment Section is strictly prohibited and should be reported immediately to the Character Assessment Section. A candidate who tries to exert any influence on the outcome of an investigation in this manner will be liable for prosecution and/or disqualification.

Similarly, it would be unlawful for the member of the Department conducting the investigation to solicit any money, gift, or service in any form to influence him/her in his/her findings.

Such misconduct should be reported to the Internal Affairs Bureau, P.O. Box 1001, New York, New York 10014, telephone number (212) 741-8401, 1-800-PRIDE-PD, or the Commanding Officer, Character Assessment Section, 235 E. 20th St. New York, New York 10003 in person, by mail, by telephone (718) 312-4226, or at any Police Department facility that may be more convenient for you. Any report of this nature should be made immediately.
