

Free Virtual CLE: Rules and Ethical Issues in Administrative Proceedings Before OATH's Trials Division

The Administrative Judicial Institute invites you and your fellow Administrative Law Judges, Hearing Officers, and attorneys to attend a two-hour CLE-accredited program entitled Rules and Ethical Issues in Administrative Proceedings Before OATH's Trials Division presented by Hon. Kevin Casey, Hon. Julia Davis, Hon. Faye Lewis, and Hon. Christine Stecura.

What constitutes appearing before OATH? What preparation for a pre-trial settlement conference is required? Can I rely only on hearsay at trial? What is the duty of candor toward a tribunal? Are there special obligations of attorneys working for the government? What if an attorney's client has diminished capacity?

The program's first half will provide an overview of the rules and best practices for appearing at OATH's Trials Division. The program's second half will review relevant sections of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct and related ethics opinions and their impact on practitioners who appear before OATH's Trials Division.

Practitioners who appear or would like to appear at OATH's Trials Division are encouraged to attend.

November 13, 2025
12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Participants will receive 1.0 CLE credit in Areas of Professional Practice and 1.0 CLE credit in Ethics and Professionalism (transitional/non-transitional).

Pre-registration for the virtual program is required.

Click Here to Register

Or visit tinyurl.com/OATH-CLE

After completing the program, please fill out this form to request CLE credit.

For our survey, fill out this form.