Step I

The Employee and/or Union shall present the grievance in the form of a memorandum to the person designated for such purpose by the New York City Office of the Public Advocate not later than 120 days after the date on which the grievance arose. The Employee may also request an appointment to discuss the grievance. The person so designated by the New York City Office of the Public Advocate shall take any steps necessary to a proper disposition of the grievance and shall reply in writing regarding the disposition by the end of the sixth work day following the date of submission.

Step II

An appeal from an unsatisfactory decision at Step I shall be presented in writing to the person designated by the New York City Office of the Public Advocate for such purpose. The appeal must be made within six (6) working days of the receipt of the Step I decision. A copy of the grievance appeal shall be sent to the person who initially passed upon the grievance. The person designated to receive the appeal at this Step shall meet with the Employee and/or the Union for review of the grievance and shall issue a written reply to the Employee and/or the Union by the end of the tenth work day following the day on which the appeal was filed.

Step III

An appeal from an unsatisfactory decision at Step II may be presented by the Union for expedited arbitration to the Office of Collective Bargaining. Expedited arbitration hearings by the Office of Collective Bargaining will be conducted according to the following procedure:

- (1) The presentation of the case, to the extent possible, shall be made in the narrative form. To the degree that witnesses are necessary, examination will be limited to questions of material fact and cross examination will be similarly limited. Submission of relevant documents, etc., will not be unreasonably limited and may be submitted as a "packet" exhibit.
- (2) The Arbitrator shall not be precluded from attempting to assist the parties in settling a particular case.

- (3) A decision will be issued by the Arbitrator within thirty days. A recitation of the facts presented will not be necessary in the Award, however a brief explanation of the Arbitrator's rationale may be included. Bench decisions may also be issued by the Arbitrator.
- (4) Decisions of the Arbitrator shall not be considered as a precedent for any other case or entered into evidence in any other forum, proceeding or dispute, except for the purposes of enforcing the award.

Section 3.

Any grievance of a general nature affecting a large group of Employees and which concerns the claimed misinterpretation, inequitable application, violation, or failure to comply with the provisions of this Agreement shall be filed at the option of the Union at Step III of the grievance procedure, without resort to previous steps. All other individual grievances in process concerning the same issue shall be consolidated with the "group" grievance.

Section 4.

If a decision satisfactory to the Union at any level of the grievance procedure is not implemented within a reasonable time, the Union may institute a grievance at Step III of the grievance procedure.

Section 5.

If the Employer exceeds any time limit prescribed at any step in the grievance procedure, the grievant and/or the Union may invoke the next step of the procedure.

Section 6.

The Employer shall notify the Union in writing of all grievances filed by covered Employees, all grievance hearings and all determinations. The Union shall have the right to have a representative present at any grievance hearing and shall be given 48 hours' notice of all grievance hearings.

Section 7.

Each of the steps in the grievance procedure, as well as time limits prescribed at each step of this grievance procedure, may be waived by mutual agreement of the parties.

Section 8. Grievance Procedure for Disciplinary Matters

For a grievance brought under Section 1(b), the following grievance procedure shall apply:

The General Counsel of the Office of the Public Advocate, or the General Counsel's designee, may discuss complaints or disciplinary problems with an Employee when such discussions are deemed necessary.

- a. After service upon an Employee of written charges of incompetence or misconduct, a meeting with the Employee, and at the Employee's option, a Union representative, shall be held with respect to such charges by a designee of the Human Resources Division, on behalf of the New York City Office of the Public Advocate. The Employee shall be served with written charges at least ten (10) days prior to the conference. Upon service of written charges of incompetence or misconduct upon an Employee, the Employee may be subject to a period of a suspension without pay pending hearing and determination of charges, which shall not exceed thirty (30) days. The Employee and/or the Union shall have the right to examine any witness(es) and to present a defense to the charges. A written decision shall be issued by the designee of the Human Resources Division. Disciplinary action, if any, shall be imposed consistent with the written decision.
- b. The Union or Employee may appeal the decision of the Human Resources Division to the General Counsel of the Office of the Public Advocate. Such appeal shall be made within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the decision. The General Counsel shall review such appeal and shall meet with the employee and the Union for review of the grievance. The General Counsel may rely solely on the evidentiary record presented pursuant to paragraph a. of this section. A decision shall be issued within fifteen (15) working days following the close of the conference.
- c. The Union may appeal the decision of the General Counsel. Such appeal shall be made within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the General Counsel's decision to the Commissioner of Labor Relations. The Union shall submit a copy of the charges and all prior step determinations including the General Counsel's decision with such appeal. The Commissioner of Labor Relations, or the Commissioner's designee, shall conduct a de novo hearing, which will include the presentation of witnesses and documentary evidence. The Commissioner of Labor Relations, or the Commissioner's designee, shall issue a written decision within thirty (30) days following the close of the hearing. The decision of the Commissioner of Labor Relations, or the Commissioner's designee, shall be final and binding.

Section 9.

- a. Employees will not have access to the above disciplinary grievance process in Section 8 of this Article for the first twelve (12) months of their employment.

- d. Any employee who withholds services as a means of redressing or otherwise protesting alleged violations of this Section shall be docked pay for any unauthorized non-performance of work and may be subject to any appropriate disciplinary action.
- e. In construing this Section, a fact-finder shall initially have the power only to decide whether the subject facilities meet the standards of subsection (a) of this Section 2 but may not affirmatively direct how the Employer should comply with this Section. In the event of a determination that the Employer is in violation of this Section, the Employer shall take appropriate steps to remedy the violation. If in the opinion of the Union the Employer does not achieve compliance within a reasonable period of time, the Union may reassert its claim. Upon such second submission, if it is found that the Employer has had a reasonable time to comply with the terms of this Section and has failed to do so, then and only then, the fact-finder may advise the Employer to follow a particular course of action which will effectuate compliance with the terms of this Section. However, such remedy shall not exceed appropriations available in the current budget allocation for the agency for such purposes.
- f. The Employer shall make reasonable efforts to provide for the personal security of Employees working in office buildings operated by the Employer, during such hours as said locations are open to the public.
