

PARKS

Culture of Health #2

Dedicated team of managers, union representatives, and workers collaboratively developing, implementing, and evaluating wellness programming.

Ice Skating at Wollman Rink

NYC Parks employees and their families gathered for an evening of ice skating at Wollman Rink in Central Park in late January. It was a wonderful time with friends and family and a great opportunity for coworkers to connect outside of the workplace. The park setting with the city skyline backdrop and helped make the evening especially memorable for first-time skaters as well as the seasoned pros who look forward to this event each year. The night was made even more special as it marked former Commissioner Iris Rodriguez-Rosa's last major event before her retirement, giving everyone in attendance a chance to share in a truly meaningful and celebratory moment together. Five hundred Parks Employees attended

