Mr. White opened the meeting by stating that CB11's social media followers have increased to 276. He asked Rosemarie Guidice, President of the Douglaston Townhouses, to be the March 2026 Community Board Partner of the Month.

Mr. White followed up with the request for local elected officials to join CB11 social media platforms, and he said most are already following.

April 4, 2026, Northwest Bayside Civic, will have their annual Easter Egg Hunt Event and CB11 will have an informational table setup. Mr. White asked for CB11 flyers and volunteers to help table the event. He would like to attend three other events for 2026 and asked for suggestions. Mr. White will work on a flyer.

Mr. White asked Mr. Hadjiconstantinou to take photos at the February and March Board meetings and forward the photos to Mr. Marziliano to be launched in April under the heading "Community Board 11 in Action" on the CB11 social media accounts.

Mr. Hadjiconstantinou stated that other Boards host a Health Fair and asked if CB11 would be interested. Mr. White said that a lot of work and manpower is involved. Mr. Marziliano stated CB11 hosted a Fire Prevention Fair but now funds are limited and it would be hard to host such a large event.

The meeting was adjourned.
