NYC Department of Sanitation

The City's Alternate Side Parking fine change has gone into effect. The new Rule will make Alternate Side Parking fines uniform across the entire city at $65. Prior it was $45, however, in Manhattan below 96 Street it was $65. The change will increase the effectiveness of the City's Alternate Side Parking regulations and help to keep NYC healthy, safe and clean. For more information visit their website at www.nyc.gov/sanitation.

Material for the Arts

For 40 years Materials for the Arts has fueled New York City's creative community.

Materials for the Arts is New York City's premier creative reuse center, which provides NYC arts nonprofits, public schools and City agencies with access to free materials. They strive to keep these valuable items from entering the landfill and put them into the hands of arts professionals, educators, and students across the five boroughs. MFTA relies upon volunteers to keep their warehouse organized. For more information visit their website.

Breaking Ground - Homeless
