Bystander Intervention and Self Defense Training

Join Borough President Donovan Richards for a Bystander Intervention and Self Defense Training, presented in partnership with Artemis Self Defense and the NYC Commission on Human Rights. The event will provide New Yorkers with the verbal and behavioral de-escalation strategies they need to safely and non-violently respond to bias incidents, discrimination, violence or hate speech. Participants will also explore the meaning of safety, being an effective ally and how identity plays a role in how we choose to intervene.

Tuesday, February 21, 5:30–8:30pm
