

Walking Bus: Earth Day Edition

Join Queens Public Library at LIC for an environmental education program called Walking Bus. Participants will make natural soap, watch a film documentary, and participate in covering the Walking Bus Display. The competition theme is Preservation Through Awareness

April 22 – Earth Day Film Documentary | 3-4:30pm

April 26 – Soap Making | 3-4:30pm

Raffle Dates: April 22-April 29

By posting answers on the bus, get a chance to win a Fitness Tracker!

Contest Questions: 1. How we can preserve the earth?

2. What way can we raise awareness across our community?

To register, send an email to li-programs@queenslibrary.org.

The Library advises participants in the Program to consult with a physician before engaging in any of the activities discussed in the Program. Participants acknowledge that the activities discussed in the Program may involve the risks of personal injury, harm, and/or property damage, and, knowing those risks, hereby assume them, and waive, release, and discharge any and all claims, including but not limited to those relating to personal injury, death or property damage, against the Library, the City of New York (the "City"), and any and all of Library's and City's trustees, officers, employees, affiliates, and assigns (collectively referred to as the "Released Parties") that the Releasing Parties have or which may accrue as a result of their participation in the Program, regardless of whether such claims are caused by the negligence of the Released Parties. Participants also agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Released Parties from any and all liability, claims, actions, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees), expenses, damages, and losses that may arise from their participation in the Program, and regardless of whether such liabilities are caused by the negligence of the Released Parties.
