

Donovan Richards Jr.
QUEENS BOROUGH PRESIDENT

Join the Youth & Young Adult Council

For High School Students, College Students and Advisors

Borough President Donovan Richards Jr. is seeking a diverse group of young, yet fierce leaders to serve on his Youth & Young Adult Council. The Council will work with the Borough President to empower and engage Queens' young people through community engagement, networking, advocacy, investment and more.

The Council will be split into two cohorts: High School Age (13–17 years old) and Young Adults (18–25 years old), with advisors assigned to each cohort. Advisors must have at least 5 years of experiencing uplifting empowering youth and young adults, preferably in Queens.

Accepting applications until October 1st.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.
