Mutual Aid and Food Pantries

We have a number of local organizations and food pantries that are helping so many in our community who are dealing with food insecurity. Among them are:

- Hour Children Food Pantry in Long Island City/Dutch Kills & has distribution three times a week. You can find information about them here.
- Bread of Life Food Pantry at the Center of Hope International serves primarily the Queensbridge area and is an important resource for those in need in and around Queensbridge with distribution several times a week.

- The Mosaic Pantry is giving food to many in the Sunnyside/Woodside area and has distributions on Monday and Thursday at 3:00pm.
- St. Raphael's Pantry at the Long Island City/Sunnyside border has the twice weekly distributions on Thursday and Saturday
- St. Theresa's Pantry in Sunnyside/Woodside every Tuesday from 4:00pm - 5:30pm
- Corpus Christi Pantry in Northern Woodside is open every Wednesday from 11am - 1pm

Many have banded together and worked with neighbors to make sure that people what they need to get by. If you need help or want to volunteer to help those in need, please reach out these groups through any of these links.

- LIC Relief
- Astoria Mutual Aid
- Sunnyside/Woodside Mutual Aid
- Woodside, Jackson Heights, East Elmhurst Mutual Aid
- Queens Together

All of these organizations and pantries need monetary donations. Please reach out to any of these organizations to help them and neighbors in need.

As always, I am here to help and my team and I will always be responsive at jvanbramer@council.nyc.gov.

Please stay safe everyone,
