What are Community Services Block Grants (CSBG)?

CSBG grants support programs and services that help low-income families and individuals attain skills, knowledge, motivation, and opportunities to become self-sufficient.

The CSBG program began as the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964—part of President Lyndon B. Johnson’s “War on Poverty”—and was updated with the Community Service Act of 1975. President Ronald Reagan replaced it in 1981 with CSBG, which required funds to be administered by the states. Since 1964, the law has required Maximum Feasible Participation of residents in the decision-making process of which programs and services are needed and funded in their communities.

How much does New York City receive?

The City of New York receives $32.6 million in CSBG funding, annually. It allocates:

- $15.6 million to the Neighborhood Development Areas initiative (NDAs) for programs including: Economic Development, Safety & Crime, Literacy, Immigrant Services, Educational Support, Healthy Families, and Senior Services.
- $17 million is allocated to citywide initiatives such as: Fatherhood, Comprehensive Services for Immigrant Families, English as a Second Language, Adolescent Literacy, the Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) and classes to obtain the Family Development Credential.

Who does the CSBG program serve?

It targets people living below 200 percent of the federal poverty level. Each receives CSBG funds for a wide range of programs and services in these low-income communities. NDA programs target the neighborhoods with the highest percentages of families with low household incomes. DYCD uses data from the NYC Department of City Planning to make the boundaries for each NDA. The goal for these programs is to serve at least 80 percent of those living within a ½-mile boundary of the NDA.

HOPE 2023

For those living on the streets, being seen is the first step to being helped. That's where you come in. Do your part on and join us 1/24 for our #HOPE2023 survey of NYers sleeping on the streets. Volunteers are needed from approximately 10:00 p.m. to 4:00 a.m. on the night of January 24th. Just a few hours of your time will help us in our ongoing efforts to support unsheltered New Yorkers and encourage them to come off the streets and subways. Thanks to the efforts of past volunteers along with the ongoing 24/7/365 efforts of our street outreach teams, we have referred more than 5,000 New Yorkers experiencing unsheltered homelessness to transitional and/or permanent housing in FY22 alone.

Please visit nyc.gov/hope to learn more and to register.

FIRE CADET

EMS TRAINEE

FDNY means pride, respect and opportunity.

The Fire Cadet Academy is designed to ensure that Cadets become familiar with the operations of the Fire Department and to provide leadership training. Cadets will receive significant classroom, field and fitness training over the course of the two (2) year program. Cadets will be required to attend the Fire Academy two (2) Saturdays per month to participate in classroom training, field training, and fitness conditioning.

Cadets will be assigned to work in major FDNY bureaus where they will receive hands-on training and learn how the bureaus relate to one another in order to provide optimal response to emergencies, as well as to enhance their ability to provide service in a number of capacities throughout the Agency. Cadets must be willing to commit to a minimum of 20 hours per week and can work up to 34 hours per week. Cadets will earn $15.67 per hour. Cadets who work more than 20 hours per week are eligible to receive health benefits.

Opportunity to become a Firefighter.

Cadets who successfully complete the academy will be eligible to take the Firefighter Promotional Exam to become a Firefighter. Those who pass the Firefighter Promotional Exam, successfully complete the Candidate Physical Ability Test (CPAT), and meet all other eligibility requirements will be eligible for appointment to Firefighter. All those appointed as probationary firefighters must successfully complete the Fire Academy.
