5) Zoning for Coastal Flood Resiliency – Planning for Resilient Neighborhoods. DCP has worked with communities throughout the city’s floodplain to identify additional ways that zoning codes can support post-disaster recovery and better promote long-term resiliency. With Zoning for Coastal Flood Resiliency, DCP seeks to incorporate the lessons that have been gleaned from our outreach to make zoning more supportive of resilient building design. These strategies are intended to provide those homeowners, business owners, and architecture who live and work in the city’s floodplain.
