Announcements from Elected Officials.

Announcements from Chairman Kelty.

Board Member Micheal Cheng sent email of resignation due to his family’s relocation.

Approval of April 2024 minutes.

Jennifer O’Sullivan, Chief Operating Officer, NYC Football Club: Thanked everyone for their support helping to make the new soccer stadium possible.

Judge Wendy Li: Spoke briefly about the different types of judicial Courts.

Inspector Kevin Coleman, Commanding Officer NYPD 109th Precinct, spoke about crimes within the precinct.

Emily Betson and Ryan Benson, FBI NY Field Office, discussed Election Crimes.

Public Hearing

Street co-naming as Paul A. Vallone Way, on the NE corner of 156th Street, and 32nd Avenue.

This co-naming was requested by Paul A. Vallone’s family and Jonathan Szott, former Chief of Staff to Councilman Paul A. Vallone Nicholas Corrado, Transportation Chair

Anna-Marie Vallone thanked everyone for recognizing her husband’s achievements. The family is honored to have the street co-named for him. The street co-naming would have meant a lot to him.

Nicholas Corrado: The Transportation Committee met and was unanimously in favor of co-naming the street for Paul A. Vallone.

Maria Becce, Broadway-Flushing Homeowners’ Association: Supports the co-naming. BFHA called his office many times for assistance. Councilman Vallone and his staff were always extremely helpful. We tried for many years to become a historic landmarks district. He was able to get the Landmarks Preservation Commission to come and tour the area. His office assisted in getting deeds re-recorded with notations and copied over 600 deeds. Councilman Vallone was instrumental in starting the NCO program at the 109th Pct. He worked with Borough President Katz to get financing to renovate Bowe Park.

Chairman Kelty: The motion is to approve. Seconded by Yacov Pshtissky.

40 – In favor

0 – Against

The vote is unanimous in favor.

Street co-naming as Arthur O’Meally Place, on the SE corner of 32nd Avenue and Union Street.

This co-naming was requested by his son Arthur F. O’Meally. Nicholas Corrado, Transportation Chair

Millicent O’Meally: My husband was like a member of this Community Board. He taught himself about ULURP and other terms. Arthur would sit behind at Board meetings and tell me questions to ask the Board. He also enjoyed counting trees for the Parks Department tree census and he trimmed trees in the neighborhood. He took care of our neighborhood and also our borough. He received an award from the Borough President for all he did, including cleaning cemeteries to improve this area.

Nicholas Corrado: The Transportation Committee met and was unanimously in favor of co-naming the street for Arthur O’Meally.

Representatives from Councilwoman Ung’s Office and State Senator Liu’s office spoke in favor of the street co-naming.

Chairman Kelty: The motion is to approve seconded by John Park.

40 – In favor

0 – Against

The vote is unanimous in favor.

Public Participation

Warren Schreiber: The project on the Cross Island Parkway has been going on for months. It has been resurfaced but they didn’t repaint the lines, making it dangerous to drive on.

Judge Wendy Li spoke, she is running for a position as a Surrogates Court Judge.

Andy Chen spoke, he is running for the seat on the NYS Assembly District 40.

Kim Cody: I would like to remind everyone about the Memorial Day Parade in Whitestone. It will be on May 27th and it will start at 149th Street and 15th Drive. Please remember that this is a day of remembrance for those who never came home and for those who are still serving.

Meeting ended: 9:30 pm

Respectfully Submitted

Anne Krzyzanowski, Community Assistant
