Anti-Hate Resolution

Whereas, the residents of Community Board #8, Queens, represent a vibrant and dynamic mosaic of races, religions, ethnicities, identities, and creeds, and
Whereas, the members of Community Board #8 reflect this richness and are united in their commitment to protecting a community that is inclusive, respectful, and safe for all, and
Whereas, we are now witnessing—at the local, national, and global levels—a deeply troubling surge in hate speech, acts of physical violence, social media incitement, targeted vandalism, and legislative proposals that dehumanize and endanger individuals on the basis of race, religion, identity, or lifestyle, and
Whereas, these acts are not abstract or distant threats; they strike at the very heart of who we are as a community, undermining the dignity, cohesion, and safety of our neighbors, and must be unambiguously and immediately condemned, whether they originate from fellow residents, political operatives, or elected officials, and
Whereas, the cultural, ethnic, and religious diversity of Community Board #8 is not merely a point of pride—it is our greatest civic strength—and must be actively defended against misinformation, conspiracy theories, and politically motivated narratives that aim to divide, destabilize, or radicalize,

Be it resolved, that Community Board #8, Queens, affirms in the strongest possible terms that it will not tolerate any form of hate, discrimination, or intimidation, including but not limited to racism, antisemitism, Islamophobia, xenophobia, homophobia, transphobia, or any other attempt to marginalize individuals based on identity, belief, or personal expression.
Be it further resolved, that Community Board #8 remains steadfast in its obligation to hear the voices of its residents without yielding to misinformation, hysteria, or ideologically driven rhetoric that seeks to stoke fear, scapegoat communities, or advance discriminatory agendas under the guise of "concern."
Be it further resolved, that members of Community Board #8 are strongly encouraged to actively interrogate divisive narratives by asking: "Where is this coming from, and why now?"—ensuring that decisions and actions are based on verified facts, and that appropriate civic and law enforcement agencies are engaged only when warranted by credible evidence.
Be it finally resolved, that Community Board #8, Queens, as an ever changing landscape will formally reaffirm its commitment to equity, inclusion, and human dignity every two years—through the renewal of this resolution and through public actions that reinforce our collective promise: that discrimination, in any form, will find no shelter here.
