Tottenville Waterfront Alliance

Area Residents

Public Contact Session

- A resident representing the Tottenville Waterfront Alliance expressed the group's displeasure with the Tottenville Shoreline Protection Project. They feel the walkway is too close to their property lines and that it will bring crime to the area.
- A resident opposes the pathway because it will affect their quality of life, privacy, noise and environment. Comments on file in Community Board office.
- A long-time resident spoke about his experiences through the years, value of trees and sidewalks, Tottenville's topography and effects of rainfall.
