Movie Screening

NEW YORK STATE Department of Veterans' Services

NYC Department of Veterans' Services

November 16th at 6 PM
James J. Peters VA Medical Center
130 W Kingsbridge Rd,
Room 1B-07
Bronx, NY 10468

Next week kicks off Veteran and Military families month, which entails a plethora of events, workshops, "freebies," and opportunities to celebrate and empower our community! Spearheaded by NYS DVS, "Movie Across the State" is a special initiative to bring an impactful movie screening meant to spur thoughtful conversations on the Veteran experience.

The selected movie this year is Dear Sirs a film which explores the story of an American World War II Prisoner of War 75 years later. Here's how they describe it: Filmmaker Mark Pedri had never heard his grandfather Silvio's story. Ten years after his grandfather's death, Mark found an archive of photos and letters that changed the rest of his life. The discovery inspired Mark to journey across Europe on a bike to examine his grandfather's experience as a Prisoner of War in WWII in an effort to understand the man who helped raise him.

The film is being screened across the state with 2 showings in the NYC area:

VETERAN NEWS

Here's How New House Speaker Mike Johnson Voted on Veteran and Military Issues

The man who became speaker of the House on Wednesday after three weeks of GOP infighting has a solidly conservative voting record that includes opposing both the sweeping toxic exposure bill for veterans passed last year and the Pentagon's abortion policy.

Rep. Mike Johnson, R-La., won the speakership Wednesday with every Republican vote. He was the GOP's fourth choice for speaker since Rep. Kevin McCarthy, R-Calif., was ousted from the job at the beginning of October, effectively shutting down the House until a new leader was chosen.

The victory marked a rapid rise for Johnson, who joined Congress in 2017 and since 2020 has been the vice chairman of the House Republican Conference, a messaging job that made him the fifth highest-ranking Republican in the House. While he has generally kept a low profile for the last six years, he was perhaps most well-known before Wednesday for playing a leading role in Republicans' efforts to overturn the 2020 election.

On veterans issues, last year he voted against the PACT Act, considered the biggest increase of veterans benefits in a generation that expanded benefits and health care for those exposed to toxic substances during their military service. While some top Republicans ended up supporting the version of the PACT Act that became law, more staunch conservatives continued to oppose it over the estimated $278 billion price tag.

Johnson also voted against a year-end package of smaller veterans and military family measures last year. Among other provisions, the bill mandated that states recognize service members and spouses' valid professional licenses from other states and ensured veterans won't lose GI Bill benefits if schools have to close in a future emergency like they did for the COVID-19 pandemic. A Message From Mayor Adams:

Each week DVS shares a brief update about how our administration is getting stuff done for New Yorkers.

Working people are the beating heart of this city — so as working New Yorkers go, so goes the city. We've secured billions of dollars for New Yorkers in childcare subsidies and earned income tax credits, issued more housing vouchers than any time in our city's history, and expanded our summer youth employment program to reach more than 100,000 young people. Here at DVS, we're supporting our Veteran Entrepreneurs through exciting initiatives like our Boss-Up Veterans program, which awards up to $20,000 to Veteran entrepreneurs.

The Adams administration is dedicated to cutting through the noise and delivering information directly to you and all New Yorkers.
