New Year, New Look

We invite you to discover the new look of Jobs NYC Talent Portal, redesigned to make it easier to access job opportunities, training programs, and career services across New York City.

The updated site features:

- Streamlined navigation with clear section headers, plus a universal NYC.gov header for easy access to other city services
- Training programs organized by areas of interest and need
- The same trusted Jobs NYC content, presented in a more cohesive and user-friendly layout

Explore the new site today and find the resources to support your next career step!
