YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS NOTICE IN ITS ENTIRETY BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

WHAT THE JOB INVOLVES: Lieutenants in the Police Department, under general supervision of a higher ranking superior, supervise the day to day work of a platoon as a Platoon Commander; act as an Operations Coordinator, Special Operations Coordinator, Integrity Control Officer or in some other supervisory capacity in another unit, squad, bureau or office; evaluate the quality of subordinates' performance and review the evaluations made by first line supervisors; perform all additional functions prescribed for the rank by relevant laws, rules and procedures, and other orders or directives of the Police Department; perform special duties or assignments as directed by the Police Commissioner at his discretion. They make adjustments to and may conduct roll call; account for personnel and make personnel assignments; monitor and inspect subordinates; evaluate subordinates and make recommendations regarding remedial actions; train and counsel subordinates; direct and coordinate the actions of subordinates at the scene of police emergencies; direct arrest processing and the detention of prisoners in holding cells; account for, safeguard and maintain department property; safeguard evidence and non-Police Department property; conduct investigations and coordinate searches; complete and review reports, forms and logs; make required notifications; and perform related work.

Lieutenants (Police) are required to work Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, nights and change tours or work overtime when ordered as permitted by the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Some of the physical activities performed by Lieutenants (Police) and environmental conditions experienced are: working outdoors in all kinds of weather; walking and/or standing in an assigned area during a tour; driving or sitting in a patrol car during a tour while remaining alert; running after a fleeing suspect; climbing up stairs; carrying an injured adult with assistance; gripping persons to prevent escape; restraining a suspect by use of handcuffs; detecting odors such as those caused by smoke or gas leaks; engaging in hand to hand struggles to subdue a suspect resisting arrest; being physically active for prolonged periods of time; understanding verbal communication over the radio with background noise; reading and writing under low light conditions; carrying or wearing heavy equipment; and wearing a bullet-resistant vest.

(This is a brief description of what you might do in this position and does not include all the duties of this position.)

THE SALARY: The current minimum salary is $102,091 per annum. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe you are eligible to take this examination, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to file online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to 24 hours to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets. You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing and Applications Centers to file for this examination online and submit a money order payable to DCAS (Exams).

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/exam_special_circumstances.pdf. This guide gives important information about requesting an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special test accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans' or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION: This examination is open to each employee of the New York Police Department who on the date of the multiple-choice test:

- (1) holds a permanent (not provisional) competitive appointment or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Sergeant (Police); and
- (2) is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your agency's personnel office. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If it is determined prior to the test date that you are not eligible to participate in this examination, you will not receive an Admission Notice to take the multiple-choice test, you will not be permitted into the test site, and your application fee will not be refunded.

ELIGIBILITY TO BE PROMOTED: To be eligible for promotion, you must have served permanently in the rank of Sergeant (Police) in any one or combination of the New York City Police, Transit Police or Housing Authority Police Departments for at least two years and have successfully completed the probationary period for Sergeant. Additionally, you must be permanently employed as a Sergeant or your name must appear on a Preferred List for Sergeant at the time of promotion.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED:

Education Requirement: Eligibles must have attained ninety-six (96) college semester credits before promotion to the rank of Lieutenant (Police). The 96 college semester credits must have been earned as the result of satisfactory completion of course work at an accredited college or university. Eligibles are required to submit Official Transcripts to the Educational Tracking Unit, Police Academy, 235 East 20 Street, New York, N.Y. 10003 as soon as practicable. Only Official copies of transcripts will be utilized to determine whether a candidate has fulfilled the Education Requirement.

The college credits must have been earned as a result of satisfactory completion of course work at a college or university accredited by an accrediting body recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation ("CHEA") or, if credits have been earned at a foreign college, the credits must be evaluated by an approved Foreign Evaluation Service. This evaluation must be completed prior to the submission of the Official Transcript to the Educational Tracking Unit. An employee who has graduated from the Police Academy since 1974 may be able to earn college credits based upon his or her graduation from the Police Academy. These college credits can be used towards meeting this Education Requirement; however, these college credits can only be used towards meeting this Education Requirement if they are accepted and listed on an accredited college or university official transcript.

Drug Testing: All eligibles for promotion to this position will be required to submit to a drug test. This one time drug test may occur prior to promotion or after promotion during the probationary period. This drug test will be required in addition to any other drug testing conducted by the New York City Police Department, such as random drug testing.

Driver License Requirement: At the time you are promoted to this position, you must have a motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York with no restrictions that would preclude the performance of Lieutenant (Police) work. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment.

Investigation: To be promoted, candidates must present to the Police Department all the official documents and proof required to qualify.

THE TEST: You will be given a multiple-choice test at a computer terminal or a paper and pencil test. You will be informed of the format on your Admission notice. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test. Ratings for seniority, departmental awards, and if applicable, Veterans' Preference Credit, will be added to the multiple-choice test scores of passing candidates only, to determine final scores.

The multiple-choice test is designed to assess the extent to which candidates have certain abilities and technical knowledge determined to be important to the performance of the tasks of a Lieutenant (Police). Task areas to be tested are as follows:

Assign and Reassign Personnel: Reviewing roll call sheets and assigning personnel to posts or duties on a daily basis; accounting for personnel during and after tours of duty; and changing assignments as situations arise during a single tour of duty. These tasks involve both uniformed and civilian personnel.

Monitor and Inspect Subordinates: Monitoring and inspecting subordinates to determine if they are performing acceptably.

Train, Evaluate, Reward and Correct Subordinates: On-the-job training; evaluating work performance; counseling and discussing subordinates' problems; and administering or recommending formal or informal rewards or punishments, transfers or discretionary assignments. These tasks pertain to civilian and uniformed personnel.

Monitor Local Area Conditions and Department Information Sources: Monitoring and reviewing various information sources to stay abreast of issues and conditions which might affect command operations.

Direct Arrest and Detention Procedures: Directing, reviewing or monitoring subordinates' actions regarding the arrest, detention and proper treatment of prisoners/detainees.

Direct Activities During Incidents and Emergencies: Field investigation and supervision of response to complaints, incidents or emergencies.

Actions Needed to Ensure Integrity: The prevention, identification, detection or investigation of alleged police misconduct or corruption.

Safeguard Evidence and Non-Police Property: Safeguarding, storing, vouchering and accounting for evidence and non-police property.

Account for, Safeguard and Maintain Police Property: Ensuring that the command has proper equipment and supplies; as well as tracking, securing and maintaining police equipment and the police station.

Cooperate with Community Groups, the Public and Other Agencies: Answering questions, making referrals, making presentations and otherwise interacting with community groups, members of the public and other city agencies.

Make Required Notifications and Communicate Information: Making formal notifications as required by department regulations, as well as informal communications of information.

Prepare and Review Written Forms, Logs and Reports: Preparing or reviewing written forms, logs and reports, as well as department memos, directives and bulletins. The forms and reports may be captioned (fill-in-the-blank), written narrative, or a combination of both.

Plan and Administer Programs/Design Procedures: Planning, scheduling, administering and evaluating programs or procedures to increase productivity, reduce crime conditions, save money, make the command function smoother, solve administrative problems, etc.

The test may include questions which require mastery of technical knowledge based on such materials as the NYCPD Patrol Guide, Administrative Guide, Interim Orders, Legal Bureau Bulletins, New York State Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Family Court Act, Vehicle & Traffic Laws (VTL) and Mayor's Executive Order No. 16 of 1978, as amended, and may address any of the following areas: Aided Cases; Accidents; Complaints; Summonses; Arrests; Prisoners; Property; Court and Agency Appearances; Patrol Supervision; Special Patrol Operations; Disciplinary Matters; Personnel Matters; Uniforms, Equipment and Department Property, in effect up to and including January 18, 2015.

The test may also include questions which require the use of any of the following abilities:

Analytical Thinking: Analyzing information and using logic to address specific work-related issues and problems; involves the identification of problems, not implementation of solutions. You may use this ability to identify trends and or patterns in activity.

Quantitative Analysis & Interpretation: Analyzing, interpreting and understanding the underlying principles and meaning of numerical data; recognizing inconsistencies and errors in reports containing numerical data. May involve making projections. You may use this ability when analyzing Complaint Reports or traffic related incidents to determine causes and patterns of complaints.

Judgement & Decision-Making: Reviewing information to develop and evaluate the relative costs and benefits of potential solutions to problems and choosing the most appropriate one; implementing a course of action determined by thinking analytically. You may use this ability when adjusting personnel tours to address crime, quality of life and traffic issues.

Planning and Organizing: Establishing a method of execution to accomplish a specific goal over an extended period of time; determining appropriate assignments and allocation of resources. You may use this ability when preparing precinct details for events such as parades or demonstrations.

Management of Material Resources: Obtaining and seeing to the appropriate use of equipment, facilities and materials needed to do certain work; managing the things needed to accomplish tasks. You may use this ability when obtaining specialized equipment to carry out operations.

Management of Personnel Resources: Motivating, developing and directing people as they work, identifying the best people for the job; managing employees needed to accomplish tasks. You may use this ability when selecting the most qualified personnel for units that handle special situations.

Monitoring: Assessing performance of oneself, other individuals or organizations to make improvements or take corrective action; overseeing the quality of performance. You may use this ability when gathering information to be used in the assessment of a subordinate.

Time Management: Managing one's own time and the time of others in order to promote effective use of work hours. You may use this ability when preparing information and data to be presented at a large scale meeting.

Persistence: Persisting in the face of obstacles until desired outcome is achieved; may modify goals if and when appropriate instead of giving up. You may use this ability when implementing procedures to confront spiking crime patterns.

Adaptability/Flexibility: Responding to change (positive or negative) in a constructive manner and adapting approach as needed to the situation. You may use this ability when managing personnel changes.

Stress Tolerance: Accepting criticism and dealing calmly and effectively with high stress situations. You may use this ability when placed in charge of large scale operations.

Active Listening: Giving full attention to what other people are saying, taking time to understand the points being made, asking questions as appropriate and not interrupting at inappropriate times; requires interaction between speaker and listener. You may use this ability when addressing roll-call, speaking with precinct personnel or when conducting meetings.

Persuading & Influencing Others: Causing others to change or modify their opinions, views or behaviors using a variety of strategies. You may use this ability when meeting with local officials or during local council meetings.

Written Expression: Appropriately communicating information and ideas in written words and sentences so intended audience will understand. You may use this ability when completing documentation and reports.

Conflict Resolution: Negotiating with others to resolve grievances or conflicts and handle complaints by developing a constructive solution. You may use this ability when handling incidents involving off-duty members of the service.

Concern for Others: Acting in a manner sensitive to others' needs and feelings while being understanding and helpful on the job; showing consideration. You may use this ability when performing an assessment of a subordinate.

Coaching & Mentoring: Identifying the developmental needs of others and coaching, mentoring, or otherwise helping others to improve their knowledge or skills. You may use this ability when managing command units.

Teamwork: Developing mutual trust and cooperation while working together toward the accomplishment of a common goal or outcome. You may use this ability when coordinating a response across multiple agencies.

Integrity: Acting in an honest and ethical manner.

Dependability: Fulfilling obligations and acting in a reliable, responsible and dependable manner.

Achievement/Effort: Establishing and maintaining personally challenging achievement goals and exerting effort toward mastering tasks to reach set goals.

Initiative and Independence: Displaying a willingness to take on additional responsibilities and challenges, while developing one's own way of doing things and guiding oneself with little or no supervision.

Attention to Detail: Being careful about detail and thorough in completing work tasks.

Self Control: Maintaining composure, keeping emotions in check, controlling anger and avoiding aggressive behavior, even in very difficult situations.

Updating & Using Relevant Knowledge: Keeping up-to-date technically and applying new knowledge to the job.

Certain questions may be answered on the basis of documents or other information supplied to candidates on the date of the multiple-choice test.

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you are found to be in possession of any of these devices, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test, and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

Required Identification: You are required to bring one (1) form of valid (non-expired) signature and photo bearing identification to the test site. The name that was used to apply for the exam must match the first and last name on the photo ID. A list of acceptable identification documents is provided below. If you do not have an acceptable ID, you may be denied testing. Acceptable forms of identification (bring one) are as follows: State issued driver's license, State issued identification card, US Government issued Passport, US Government issued Military Identification Card, US Government issued Alien Registration Card, Employer ID with photo, or student ID with photo.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified and your application fee will not be refunded.

SENIORITY AND DEPARTMENTAL AWARDS: Additional points for Seniority and Departmental Awards, and, if applicable, Veterans' Preference Credit, will be awarded only to candidates who pass the multiple-choice test.

Conditions: Service in titles other than Sergeant (Police) in any one or combination of the New York City Police, Transit Police or Housing Authority Police Departments will not be given seniority credit, except as provided by law. No additional credit will be given for more than the actual amount of service an eligible has, except as provided by Section 243 of the State Military Law. Any person who, pursuant to Court Order or otherwise, has been accorded retroactive seniority by the Department of Citywide Administrative Services in the title of Sergeant (Police) in any one or combination of the New York City Police, Transit Police or Housing Authority Police Departments shall be given appropriate credit.

Note: See "EFFECTS OF A BREAK IN SERVICE" section, below.

Departmental Awards: Use the following chart to determine the points credited for departmental awards.

For Each Award:	Add the Following:
Honorable Mention*	0.156 points
Exceptional Merit	0.125 points
Commendation	0.094 points
Meritorious Police Duty	0.063 points
Excellent Police Duty	0.031 points
Annual Physical Fitness Incentive Program	maximum of 0.500 per year to a maximum of 2.500
Department Medal of Honor	0.375 points
Police Combat Cross	0.219 points
Medal for Valor (Merit)	0.188 points

*The following additional points beyond those awarded for Honorable Mention will be applied if the member has also been awarded any of the following medals for the same act, otherwise, the member will receive the points as indicated above.

Department Medal of Honor	0.219 points
Police Combat Cross	0.063 points
Medal for Valor (Merit)	0.032 points

Terms and Conditions Governing Credit for Departmental Awards:

- Credit shall not be given for Excellent Police Duty awarded in connection with the Police Department's Blood Bank Program.
- Credit for the Annual Physical Fitness Incentive Program will be awarded at two-tenths (0.200) of one point for successful completion of the cardiovascular component. One-third (0.300) of one point will be awarded for successful completion of the Job Standard Test (JST), which consists of six components (barrier surmount, stair climb, physical restraint simulation, pursuit run, victim rescue, and trigger pull). The cardiovascular component must be successfully completed before candidates may participate in the Job Standard Test. A maximum of one-half (0.500) point per year earned may be applied toward the exam, to a total of 2.500 points. Consult the current Personnel Bureau Memo for further details of the program.
- Credit for awards is granted in one successful examination only, i.e., an examination in which the participating candidate attains a place on the eligible list and from which list he/she is subsequently promoted and passes probation. Credit for an award will not be split between two promotion exams. If a candidate previously reached the maximum on seniority and departmental awards for other promotion exams by using less than the full value of an award, the remainder of the value of the award will not be granted on this examination.
- Credit for awards must be used by the candidate at the earliest opportunity, i.e., in the first successful examination following acquisition and recognition of the award. Credit for awards will be granted in date order, i.e., oldest awards will be credited first, with the exception of the Annual Physical Fitness Incentive Program, which will be granted first.
- Only departmental awards granted on or before the date of the written test will be credited. No credit will be given for the Annual Physical Fitness Incentive Program granted in conjunction with an earlier promotional exam where the candidate was placed on a resulting eligible list and from which list he/she was subsequently promoted and passed probation.

- f. Credit for awards earned while employed by the New York City Transit Police Department or New York City Housing Authority Police Department will be granted to eligible candidates in compliance with NYCPD Operations Order No. 94 dated 7/27/93.
- g. The maximum total credit attainable on Seniority and Departmental Awards is 8.751 points. Credit for seniority will be granted before granting credit for awards. This will allow maximum use of awards. Any additional credit earned for awards beyond the maximum may be granted in a subsequent promotion examination, except for awards given partial credit as indicated in "c" above.

EFFECTS OF A BREAK IN SERVICE: The period of a break in service will not be credited toward eligibility to be promoted or in the computation of seniority credits. Additionally, any time served prior to a break in service of more than one a year will not be credited for these purposes.

ADMISSION NOTICE: You should receive an Admission Notice in the mail about 10 days before the date of the test. If you do not receive an Admission Notice at least 4 days before of the test, you must go to the Exam Support Group, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, Manhattan, to obtain a duplicate notice, which you will receive unless there was a determination that you are not eligible to participate in the examination. Test site assignments will take your address into consideration, but proximity cannot be guaranteed.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you pass the multiple-choice test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS: It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address and/or email address. You may miss important information about your exam(s) or consideration for appointment, including important information that may require a response by a specified deadline, if we do not have your correct mailing and/or email address. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to your Agency or to the United States Postal Service will NOT update your records with DCAS. To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit a change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), old mailing and or/email address, and your new mailing and/or email address. Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Probationary Period: The probationary period for Lieutenants (Police) promoted as a result of this examination is twelve (12) months. However, the probationary period may be extended for an additional six (6) months pursuant to the Personnel Rules and Regulations of the City of New York.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS:

Late Filing: Consult your agency's personnel office to determine the procedure for filing a late application if you meet one or more of the following conditions:

- (1) You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and cannot apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
- (2) You become eligible after the above application period but on or before the date of the multiple-choice test.

Make-up Test: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the test for any of the following reasons:

- (1) compulsory attendance before a public body;
- (2) on-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City;
- (3) absence for one week following the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City;
- (4) absence due to ordered military duty;
- (5) a clear error for which the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the examining agency is responsible; or
- (6) a temporary disability, pregnancy-related, or child-birth-related condition preventing you from taking the test.

To request a make-up test, contact the Exam Support Group in person or by mail at 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007, as soon as possible and provide documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION: Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after promotion, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted and copies are available at nyc.gov/dcas and at the DCAS Computer-based Testing and Applications Centers.
