Chinatown Connections

Broader Neighborhood Context

Chinatown Connections: Improving the Public Realm

A $55 million capital effort in Chinatown funded by New York City and New York State to support the needs of existing community and the local economy, bolster neighborhood identity and culture, expand pedestrian space, and support connections with surrounding communities by creating safer pedestrian and cyclist connections at Worth Street and Chatham Square

Renovating Kimlau Square

Proposed capital project to expand public space at Kimlau Square, align the intersection geometry, improve pedestrian crossings, and cyclist connections.

Beautifying the Park Row Connection to Chinatown

Implement a Street Improvement Project (SIP) in the near-term to beautify and improve accessibility at Park Row from the Brooklyn Bridge to Kimlau Square, while engaging on future capital improvements in the long-term.

Creating a Chinatown Welcome Gateway

Build a landmark gateway to commemorate the cultural heritage of the area and draw visitors to the neighborhood.
