

Private Improvements Eligible for Revocable Consents

- Accessibility Lift
- Benches
- Bridges
- Cable above ground
- Cellar Door including stair
- Clocks
- Conduits and underground cable
- Electrical sockets
- Enclosure for trash receptacle
- Fenced or walled-in area not used for planting or parking;
- Flagpoles
- Guard booths
- Information sign or kiosk
- Litter receptacle for public use
- Overhead building projection (not a marquee)
- Parking lots for private use
- Pipe or fuel pipeline
- Planted areas, including any surrounding fence or wall
- Planters
- Posts, poles or bollards (non-security)
- Public service corporation facilities ancillary to, but not within, a franchise granted prior to July 1, 1990
- Railroad tracks for private use
- Ramps intended to provide access to people with disabilities
- Retaining walls
- Sidewalk plaques or logos
- Socket with removable pole, post, or similar devices (non-electrical)
- Stoops, steps, ramps, vestibules or other entrance details
- Stoops and any other improvements adjacent to a building (historic)
- Street lamp or light fixture
- Tunnels
- Vaults extending beyond the curb line
- City funded improvements
- Security structures
- Work of art (integrated into improvement)
- Loading docks/bay
- Bike racks
- Flood mitigation systems