

Saturday, July 26 | 7am - 3pm

This year, NYC DOT's Summer Streets will open over 22 miles of car-free streets to pedestrians, cyclists, and joggers throughout the five boroughs. On Staten Island, the route runs along Forest Avenue between Elizabeth Street and Bard Avenue. Attendees will be able to enjoy free fitness classes, cultural performances, and family-friendly activities along the route and at the rest stop.

Street Access for Motor Vehicles

Forest Avenue, west of Clove Rd, East of Bard Avenue, and adjacent avenues will remain open to motor vehicles.

Businesses

- Consider scheduling deliveries and pick-ups on Friday and/or after 4pm on Saturday, July 26th.
- Notify your clients and customers ahead of time and invite them to participate in the festivities.

Residents

- Parking will be restricted along the route beginning at 5pm the night before event through 4pm the day of the event. We encourage you to plan ahead and observe posted parking restrictions.
- Access to garages on side streets might be limited.
- Noise volumes will be kept low throughout the event with no amplified sound before 10am.

Transit

- Buses will be rerouted along the Summer Streets route; look for posted signs or visit mta.info for more information.
- Major cross streets will be open to traffic.

Parking

- No parking regulations will be in effect from 5pm Friday before the event until 4pm the day of the event.
- Street closures will begin at 5am with streets reopening at 3:30pm on the day of the event.
