HOT 97 ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TOY DONATION

"We wish you a Merry Christmas, we wish you a Merry Christmas, we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!"

On Friday, December 17, 2010, the Herbert G. Cave Auditorium was filled with excitement, laughter and cheer as 300 students from P.S. 197, P.S. 175, P.S. 92, P.S. 30/31, P.S.57 and Amber Charter Schools were entertained and presented with gifts from both Harlem Hospital Center and Hot 97 staff. The children were dazzled by the holiday classic story with a twist. "Twas the Night before Christmas in Harlem" was read by Ms. Nancy Simmons, Senior Public Health Educator, Community Health Education and Outreach, with performance by the Big Apple Circus Clowns (Harlem's version of "Twas the Night before Christmas:"); and with a musical selection by Ms. Wilhelmina Weston. Hot 97 works with Ms. Valerie Wright, Coordinator, Pediatrics Research Program, to visit Harlem Hospital Center annually, presenting gifts to the children who attend the schools within the community.

APPRECIATION BREAKFAST FOR VOLUNTEERS

On Tuesday, December 21, 2010, Harlem Hospital Center saluted our volunteers with an Appreciation Breakfast. Volunteers were thanked for their tireless service to Harlem Hospital Center. The breakfast also served as an opportunity for the volunteers to meet their fellow workers. Ms. Stephanie Harewood, Associate Director, Volunteer Services, expressed her appreciation, and Ms. Wilhelmina Weston, Volunteer, sang a Christmas Carol. The volunteers were introduced to the new Network Senior Associate Director of Human Resources, Ms. Yvette Villanueva, who also expressed her appreciation and helped serve the volunteers.

ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES' HOLIDAY PARTY

On Wednesday, December 22, 2010, The Department of Environmental Services took time out to celebrate the holidays in the 3rd Floor Dayroom. With ethnic foods, music and dancing, the department staff laughed and enjoyed themselves and were thanked by the Department's Associate Director, Mr. Courtney Young, for the very fine services rendered throughout the year.

BERTA'S JAM II COMES TO HARLEM HOSPITAL CENTER

Berta's Jam was created by music promoter Roberta Alloway to take us on a musical journey through some of Harlem's best loved night spots. Remember when music was heard on every corner in Harlem? The Lenox Lounge, La Familia, Wells, St. Nick's Pub, Small's Paradise, Gold Brick Inn, Mark IV and Carl's Off The Corner. Come and enjoy the amazing musicians and vocalists that will bring you back to a magical moment in the history of Harlem.

Berta's Jam II features the alluring vocal sophistication of Lady Cantrese, the amazing and powerful voice of Grammy-nominated singer Gregory Porter, and the swinging and soulful sounds of Patience Higgins and the Sugar Hill Quartet with Marcus Persiani, Alex Hernandez and David Gibson.

Berta's Jam II will be showcased at Harlem Hospital Center in the Herbert G. Cave Auditorium on Saturday, January 8, 2011 at 3 p.m. To learn more about ticket purchase, contact the New Heritage Theatre at (212) 926-2550 ext. 21 or at www.newheritagetheatre.org.
