MAKING STRIDES AGAINST BREAST CANCER 2009 WALK

Join the Harlem Hospital Center and the Renaissance Health Care Network Walk Teams in the 3.1 mile American Cancer Society Making Strides Against Breast Cancer 2009 Walk on Sunday, October 18, 2009 at Central Park - 72nd Street Bandshell. Registration and Rolling Start from 9:00-11:00AM.

Walking together we bring awareness and education about ways to reduce risk, and we empower communities to join the fight against breast cancer. Monies raised through Making Strides are used to find cures, help people get and stay well, and encourage fight back. Together, we can save lives.

To join the team or make a donation contact Ms. Stacey Bennett at stacey.bennett@nychhc.org or (212) 939-8035.

2009 STEP OUT: WALK TO FIGHT DIABETES

Gather your friends, family and colleagues and walk 4.8 miles with the Harlem Hospital Center/Renaissance Health Care Network Walk Team in the American Diabetes Association Step Out: Walk to Fight Diabetes on Sunday, October 25, 2009 at the South Street Seaport. Registration begins at 8:30 AM and the Walk starts at 10:00 AM.

Every step we take and every dollar we raise helps the American Diabetes Association provide educational programs in our communities, protect the rights of people with diabetes and fund critical research for a cure. By participating in Step Out: Walk to Fight Diabetes, you can get fit, reduce your risk for type 2 diabetes and support the American Diabetes Association.

To join the team or make a donation, contact Ms. June Bobcombe by Email at june.bobcombe@nychhc.org or call (212) 939-8519.

MANDATORY: ALL EMPLOYEES FOR FLU VACCINATION

HHC is one of four main agencies involved in preparing New Yorkers for the flu season by giving them information and helping them to access vaccinations and medical treatment.

The Flu season is just around the corner and immunization protects patients, staff and visitors from transmitting the virus. With the varieties expected this year, it is most important (and mandatory) for health care workers to be prepared.

For facts about influenza, please call 311 or visit www.nyc.gov/flu.

BLOOD DRIVE

The next Blood Drive is scheduled to take place on Wednesday, September 23, 2009.

NATIONAL HOLIDAY

As a reminder, Monday, September 7 is Labor Day! Have a safe Holiday.
