Education Forum April 12, 2014

Education, Youth and Libraries Committee have set a date of April 10th for their "State of Education in Harlem" Forum. It will be held at Harriett Tubman School located on West 127th Street. We have decided on four panels, Charter Schools, pros and cons; Special Education; Testing/Common Core and Role of Parents. We hope to offer breakfast and lunch. Sonja Jones of CB9 recommended reaching out to CBOs such as Advocates for Children to participate on the panels. The day will begin at 8am and end around 4:00pm. We are asking the new NYC Education Chancellor to be our keynote speaker. We need to ensure that there are interpreters at the meeting and that security is provided. We are also looking at some potential partners. We plan to invite organizations to have tables at the Forum to provide additional information to parents in attendance, i.e., Libraries, Gifted and Talented programs, special education, etc.
