Discussion

Fun 1st – Howard Hesson

Fun 1st provides programming that promotes the development of health behaviors. Their program offers fun fitness and nutrition classes, covering a variety of issues facing students. They empower students, educators and communities to take control of their health. For further information go to contactus@fun1st.org Fun1st is currently operating in two schools in Harlem as well as the YMCA.

CUNY New Visitors Center Advanced Science Research Center – Camille Santistevan

Ms. Santistevan came to the Education Youth and Libraries committee meeting to inform the community about a new Science center that will focus on five interconnected areas of science; nanoscience, photonics, structural biology, neuroscience and environmental science. It is located at 85 St. Nicholas Terrace at the CUNY Graduate Center. They are hoping to encourage group visits from schools. Currently open to the public on the first Monday of every month but hoping to expand those hours as they hire staff. An open house is scheduled for Monday December 3rd from 5:30 to 7:30 pm.
