Please see the Community Board website to find block associations or tenant associations in the immediate vicinity of your location for community outreach. Applicants are encouraged to reach out to community groups.

Question 39: Crowd Management

Guests will be greeted upon entry by the host who will seat them at an appropriate table. If a table is not available, the host will take down the name and call back number to notify the guests when their table is available. The host will also suggest a local neighboring establishment to visit while waiting so as to keep the sidewalk clear.

Question 41: Noise Control

The establishment will be installing sound proofing to ensure neighbors will not hear any noise. The host on duty will direct customers out from in front of the establishment, whether that is while entering or exiting the establishment or while being placed on a wait list. No crowds will be allowed in front of the building.

Question 47: Has any principal had work experience similar to the proposed business?

Ravi's bars and restaurants have been featured in hundreds of thousands of national, international and local publications, received acclaim for their impact on cocktail culture and two of his establishments have published cocktail books. Named one of Wine Enthusiast's Tastemakers of the year, it is no doubt that he is the man behind several of New York City's favorite bars.

Having achieved a level of notoriety and success in the cocktail world, Ravi shifted his focus to food where his innovation was noticed by the New York Times, Forbes, Zagat and The New Yorker. A vegetarian-turned-vegan himself, Ravi holds a deep affection for all animals, and has been an outspoken voice on animal rights issues. His nonprofit BEAST Foundation and shift to plant-based ventures has warranted both local and national applause, receiving an award from PETA for his efforts.
