

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 155

REVOCATION OF EVACUATION ORDER

August 28, 2011

WHEREAS, Executive Orders 152, 153 and 154 declare a state of emergency in the City of New York in anticipation of extreme weather conditions, which includes mandatory evacuations from low-lying areas;

WHEREAS, the City has taken steps to implement these Orders to protect the public and property from harm and continues to do so as the City begins recovery from the extreme weather; and

WHEREAS, revocation of the evacuation orders are part of the recovery process.

By the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of New York, it is hereby ordered:

§ 1. Section 4 of Executive Order 152, and Sections 4 through 6 of Executive Order 153, concerning evacuations of hospitals, nursing homes, senior homes, residences and businesses, are hereby revoked. Hospital re-occupancy shall be conducted in a manner consistent with law, and re-occupancy of any New York City Housing Authority (“NYCHA”) facility shall begin at 6:00 p.m. today, unless the NYCHA Chair authorizes an earlier re-occupancy time.

§ 2. Any person who knowingly violates any provision of this Order is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

§ 3. This Order shall take effect immediately.

Michael R. Bloomberg
Mayor
