- The calendar months do not cooperate when it comes to distributing stipends evenly in weekly increments.
- To make it a little easier to understand we have provided the calendar to the left. (Paying on Monday every week.)
- Take a look at the last week of January 2018. The first two days of February peek in at the end of the week.
- In order to maintain the "pay once a week" schedule, you will include these two days in the last week of January, because the daily per diem is always the same.
- Note: The last full stipend in December includes Dec. 30th and 31st.
