Pinsky Joins CCRB as Mayoral Designee to the Board

Executive Director of Association for a Better New York Appointed to Oversight Board by Mayor Bill de Blasio

New York, NY – The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB), the nation’s largest independent police oversight entity, welcomed Angela Sung Pinsky as a mayoral designee to the Board on Wednesday. Pinsky is the Executive Director of the Association for a Better New York, where she is responsible for expansion and evolution of ABNY’s membership and outreach and has more than a decade of experience working on economic development, sustainability, and government technology initiatives.

Statement from Mayor Bill de Blasio:

“Angela Pinsky has dedicated her career to improving the fabric of the city and uplifting all New Yorkers. Her steadfast commitment to public service will make her an excellent addition to the Civilian Complaint Review Board.”

Statement from CCRB Chair Fred Davie:

“Angela Sung Pinsky has worked consistently to make New York City a better place to live, work, and raise a family. Carrying out the Civilian Complaint Review Board’s police oversight mission is fundamental to creating a better New York, and I am pleased to welcome her to the Board.”

Statement from CCRB Executive Director Jonathan Darche:

“New Yorkers recognize the Civilian Complaint Review Board has an important role to play in the City’s public safety landscape, and Board members who are committed to creating a better future for us all are vital to our mission. I am confident Angela Pinsky will continue to make valuable contributions to New York through her membership on the Board.”

Statement from Angela Sung Pinsky:

“I’m honored to have the opportunity to work with the CCRB to continue building a better New York with fair oversight of the NYPD. I look forward to collaborating with the Board and staff as well as everyday New Yorkers in fulfillment of the Agency’s mission.”

###

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
