

Comments Received by the Department of Consumer and Worker Protection
on Proposed Rules to implement Local Law 80 of 2020

IMPORTANT: The information in this document is made available solely to inform the public about comments submitted to the agency during a rulemaking proceeding and is not intended to be used for any other purpose

Michael Tatch

OATH is the only method small businesses in NYC have to seek justice from the actions of the various city agencies, actions often resulting in business ending penalties. This proposal gives the DCA absolute power as they can disapprove the findings of OATH. Imagine if the findings and rulings of NYC civil and criminal courts had to be approved by the District Attorney.