- Prequalification applications will be reviewed to validate compliance with corporate filings, organizational capacity, and relevant service experience.
- Approved organizations will be eligible to compete and would submit electronic proposals through the system.

The Client and Community Service Catalog, which lists all Prequalification service categories and the NYC Procurement Roadmap, which lists all RFPs to be managed by HHS Accelerator may be viewed at http://www.nyc.gov/html/hhsaccelerator/html/roadmap/roadmap.shtml. # AGENCY RULES

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST BOARD

■ NOTICE

Notice of Adoption of Final Rules

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN THE NEW YORK CITY CONFLICTS OF INTEREST BOARD by Section 1043 of the City Charter and Section 3-907 of the New York City Administrative Code that the Conflicts of Interest Board has adopted Board Rules regarding community board service.

The proposed Rules were published in the  $\underline{\text{City Record}}$  on August 27, 2019, and a public hearing was held on September 27, 2019. After consideration of the testimony and written comments received, the Conflicts of Interest Board now adopts the following Rules.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of the Rule

Throughout its history, the Board has frequently answered questions from community board members, as part-time public servants, about the application of Chapter 68, the City's conflicts of interest law, to the conduct of their work as community board members. Believing that other community board members would benefit from advice given to the individual requestors, the Board has issued eighteen advisory opinions relating to community board members. See Advisory Opinion ("A.O.") Nos. 1991-3, 1991-12, 1992-27, 1992-31, 1993-2, 1993-3, 1995-18, 1995-27, 1996-4, 1996-8, 1998-9, 2003-2, 2003-3, 2004-1, 2004-3, 2005-3, 2008-2, and 2010-1. These advisory opinions contain a total of 116 pages of Board discussion and analysis of Chapter 68 as applied to community board members in connection with various issues arising from their board service.

The Board recognizes that it can be difficult for members to understand how the interpretations of Chapter 68 contained in these opinions may apply to their service. To provide clear, concise, and comprehensive guidance, and in fulfillment of its Charter mandate under § 2603(c)(4), the Board consolidates ten of these opinions into a single rule that codifies these Board interpretations of Chapter 68's application to community board members. The other eight opinions remain as separate opinions applicable only to the individuals who sought the Board's advice at the time.

By defining "public servant" to include community board members in Charter § 2601(19), Chapter 68 makes clear that its various prohibitions—such as the prohibitions on using or disclosing confidential City information contained in Charter  $\S~2604(b)(4)$ , on accepting valuable gifts contained in Charter  $\S~2604(b)(5)$ , and on appearing before a member's own community board on behalf of private interests contained in Charter § 2604(b)(6)—apply equally to community board members as to all public servants. Relevant to and reflected in this rule, Chapter 68 prohibits any public servant, including a community board member, from using his or her City position for the financial benefit of the member or of any person or firm "associated" with the member. See Charter  $\S$  2601(5), 2604(b) (1)(b), and 2604(b)(2). Board Rules  $\S$  1-15 addresses this prohibition with respect to the three basic activities of community board members: (1) voting on matters as community board members, (2) discussing matters at a community board meeting, and (3) chairing a community board committee or meeting. Board Rules  $\S$  1-15 and the amended Board Rules  $\S$  1-02 define and clarify certain provisions of Chapter 68 as applicable to community board members.

1. Voting on Matters as Community Board Members
Board Rules § 1-15(a), which applies Charter § 2604(b)(1)(b), prohibits a community board member from voting on any matter that may result in a personal and direct economic gain to the member or to any associated person or firm. See A.O. 1991-3 at 3 ("[A] community board member is specifically prohibited under the revised Chapter 68 from voting on matters in which he or she has a direct economic interest."). The definition of "personal and direct economic gain" as a specific economic gain (or mitigation of a loss) that would flow to the member or associated person or firm as a proximate result of the matter's ultimate approval or rejection incorporate several of the Board's advisory opinions on community board voting:

- The Board in A.O. No. 2003-2 advised that a community board member who owns a licensed liquor facility is not prohibited from voting on the liquor licensing of another, possibly competing, facility within the district, because any impact on the member's interests would be speculative and indirect.
- The Board in A.O. No. 2005-3 advised that community board members who are homeowners in a proposed rezoning area covering 310 blocks are not prohibited from voting on the proposed rezoning area because "the economic benefit to the members, while in some sense 'direct,' is not specifically directed to them alone."
- The Board in A.O. 2008-2 advised that an ideological interest or policy goal, regarding such issues as noise pollution or planting trees, does not by itself rise to the level of a personal and direct economic gain for an organization.

Board Rules § 1-15(a)(3) codifies the Board's application in A.O. No. 2008-2 of the definition of "associated" in Charter § 2601(5), which includes "a person with whom the public servant has a business or other financial relationship." First, it clarifies that a community board member is associated not just with the firm that employs the member, but also with his or her individual supervisor(s), that is, "any person who, in the member's private employment, may hire or fire the member, assign work to the member, approve the member's leave, or evaluate the member's work performance." A.O. No. 2008-2 at 6-7 (advising that a community board member employed as the executive director of a not-for-profit organization is associated with someone serving on the board of that organization where that person was "effectively her boss" at the not-for-profit organization). Second, it clarifies that a community board member employed by a not-for-profit organization is associated with a major donor to the not-for-profit, given that an organization's most substantial donors are "in effect underwriting the member's salary" at the not-for-profit. A.O. No. 2008-2 at 9. Board Rules § 1-15(a) (3) establishes 10% of the not-for-profit's operating budget as an easy-to-calculate threshold at which the amount of the donation becomes so substantial to create an association between the donor and the not-for-profit employee.

Board Rules § 1-15(b) codifies the Board's longstanding advice that community board members who serve another City agency as an official, officer, or employee may not vote on any matter involving the member's other City agency, and it applies that advice to the other governmental or quasi-governmental entities listed in Charter § 2601(11) and Board Rules § 1-08, such as federal and state agencies, public authorities, and local development corporations. See A.O. No. 1991-3 (adopting the conclusion of the Board's predecessor agency, the Board of Ethics, that it would be "inappropriate for an employee of a City agency to cast a formal vote [on a community board] which might be in opposition to a position theretofore or thereafter taken by his or her agency"). This rule is consistent with the Board's longstanding interpretation of the "catch-all" provision of Charter § 2604(b)(2), which prohibits a public servant from having a position or engaging in conduct that "is in conflict with the proper discharge of his or her official duties."

2. Discussing Matters at a Community Board Meeting Board Rules § 1-15(b) codifies the Board's long-standing advice to community board members, starting in A.O. No. 1991-3, that they may participate in any discussion at the community board in matters involving the member's private interests or other government or quasi-government entity served, provided that the member discloses his or her interest prior to such discussion. See also A.O. Nos. 2003-2 and 2008-2.

3. Chairing a Community Board Committee or Meeting In A.O. No. 1993-2, the Board explained that "a committee chair can, if she or he so wishes, greatly influence a committee by controlling the agenda, recognizing speakers, and making rulings." Board Rules §

1-15(c) both codifies and clarifies the Board's prior advice on chairing meetings. Specifically, the rule states that a community board member may not serve as the chair of a committee or subcommittee that regularly considers matters involving that member's private interests (A.O. Nos. 1995-18 and 2003-2) or matters involving the interests of another government or quasi-government entity served by a member (A.O. No. 1993-2) and may not chair any meeting that considers matters involving a member's private interests or other government or quasi-government entity served (A.O. No. 1996-8). The Board had not specified how frequently a matter involving the member's private interest or other government or quasi-government service must arise for the committee to "regularly consider" such matters. The Board now defines that frequency as three or more times within a twelve-month period or, in the case of another City agency, jurisdiction over that government or quasi-government entity.

4. Additional Defined Terms

Board Rules § 1-15(d) codifies the Board's advice in A.O. No. 2004-1 that public members of community board committees, appointed pursuant to Charter § 2800(i), are not public servants within the meaning of Charter § 2601(19).

Board Rules § 1-15(e) codifies the Board's advice in A.O. No. 2004-3 that an employee of the community board is a subordinate public servant of each community board member.

The amended Board Rules § 1-02 codifies A.O. 1991-12, in which the Board advised that a community board chair is not a public servant with substantial policy discretion.

5. Additional Advisory Opinions

Pursuant to Charter § 2604(c)(4), the Board must determine which of its advisory opinions have interpretive value in construing the provisions of Chapter 68. Of its eighteen advisory opinions on community boards, the Board does not incorporate eight opinions into this rule:

- In three advisory opinions, Nos. 1992-31, 1996-4, and 1998-9, the Board applied provisions of Chapter 68 to community board members as it would to other public servants, reflecting that Charter § 2601(19) defines "public servant" explicitly to include community board members.
- In two advisory opinions, Nos. 1992-27 and 1995-27, the Board advised community board members on the rules by which they may engage in fundraising activities to benefit the community board. The subject of official fundraising was comprehensively addressed in Board Rules § 1-14, effective June 16, 2019.
- In three advisory opinions, Nos. 1993-3, 2003-3, and 2010-1, the Board answered specific questions concerning the government or quasi-government service of community board members: service with a local development corporation, proposed service on the staff of a Council Member, and service on a Community Education Council of the New York City Department of Education, respectively. In the interests of creating a single standard that applies to all community board members, the rule does not incorporate the particular exceptions described in these opinions, thus limiting their application to the particular public servants who requested the Board's advice. The Board can and will continue to address any unusual or special circumstances on a case-by-case basis through the waiver process available to all public servants pursuant to Charter § 2604(e).
