Get the HPV Vaccine

Human papillomavirus (HPV) is a sexually transmitted infection that can cause many types of cancer.

Get vaccinated — the earlier, the better.

Visit your health care provider or school-based health center for more information and to get the HPV vaccine.

Talk to a provider to find out if you are eligible, or talk to your parent or guardian about getting vaccinated. To learn more, visit nyc.gov/health/hpv.