DEPARTMENT OF INVESTIGATION
Intern Vacancy Notice

Intern Title: Policy Intern- OIG NYPD	Intern ID: 0010	Work location: 180 Maiden Lane
--	------------------------	---------------------------------------

Intern Description

The New York City Department of Investigation (DOI) is one of the oldest law enforcement agencies in the country with a mission of combating municipal corruption. It serves the people of New York City by acting as an independent and nonpartisan watchdog for New York City government, City agencies, and City employees, vendors with City contracts, individuals and entities that receive City funds.

DOI's Office of the Inspector General for the NYPD (OIG-NYPD) is charged with investigating, reviewing, studying, auditing, and making recommendations regarding the operations, policies, programs, and practices of the New York City Police Department, with the goal of enhancing the effectiveness of the NYPD, increasing public safety, protecting civil liberties and civil rights, and increasing the public's confidence in the police force. OIG-NYPD is independent of the NYPD and is part of the New York City Department of Investigation.

OIG-NYPD is seeking a highly motivated intern to assist in a wide range of projects examining NYPD policies and practices. The Intern will be assigned to the Policy Unit and will assist with policy reviews and ongoing investigations. They will conduct model practices research related to investigative matters, analyze data, review investigative materials, as well as participate in internal staff meetings and external meetings with key stakeholders. The Office provides valuable learning opportunities that enables interns to develop their ideas and innovative approaches to police oversight. This is an ideal opportunity for any student pursuing a career in policy analysis and police oversight.

If selected, the intern will be fingerprinted and undergo a background investigation.

This is an unpaid internship.
