THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, NY 10007

Summer 2017

Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to share with you the 2017 edition of the New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun!

From performances and events in our wonderful parks and green spaces to sun-filled trips to our beautiful beaches to the vibrant cultural festivals, concerts, and sporting events that take place across the five boroughs, there is so much for New Yorkers and visitors alike to look forward to as the summer season begins. Thanks to the efforts of the Department of Youth and Community Development and its partners, this guide ensures that young New Yorkers will have no shortage of exciting, educational, and memorable activities to experience with their families and friends this summer. The hundreds of low-cost and free events happening in our city in July and August are sure to pique the interest of any young scientist, athlete, bookworm, foodie, movie buff, or music lover.

Every New York deserves the opportunity to participate in the many wonderful things the five boroughs have to offer, and we are determined to give our residents of all ages and backgrounds the chance to experience the energy and excitement that have long defined our city. Chirlane and I are proud to applaud DYCD for once again creating this guide and extend our best wishes for a safe, healthy, and fun-filled summer.

Sincerely,

Bill de Blasio
Mayor

Summer, 2017

Dear Fellow New Yorkers:

Another sizzling summer in New York City is here, and the Department of Youth and Community Development is pleased to present the 2017 New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

Our great city has something for everyone: from the High Line to High Bridge, from Bryant Park to Prospect Park, from Summer on the Hudson to Shakespeare in the Park. Whether your summer plans include catching a breeze on City Island, grabbing a bite at one of the City's greenmarkets, taking in a movie under the stars, or cooling down with a good book at your local library, you can find plenty of free and low-cost events in this handy guide.

DYCD would like to thank the City agencies, museums, youth groups, libraries, arts organizations and cultural institutions that play a role in compiling this information each year. On behalf of the entire staff of DYCD, I wish you a memorable summer of fun.

Sincerely,

Bill Chong

Movies with a View is a summer must that has earned a large and loyal following. Since its launch in 2000, we've wowed, entertained, thrilled, and pulled at the heartstrings of over 340,000 moviegoers, making our program one of New York City's favorite summer film series. Movies with a View takes place every Thursday evening in July and August. In 2017, the eight-week series will draw an average of 7,000 film fans at each screening. There is no better place to be on a hot summer night than watching a classic film and enjoying the breeze off of the East River from Harbor View Lawn with the dazzling Manhattan skyline before you.

Free

Movies with a View is a summer must that has earned a large and loyal following. Since its launch in 2000, we've wowed, entertained, thrilled, and pulled at the heartstrings of over 340,000 moviegoers, making our program one of New York City's favorite summer film series. Movies with a View takes place every Thursday evening in July and August. In 2017, the eight-week series will draw an average of 7,000 film fans at each screening. There is no better place to be on a hot summer night than watching a classic film and enjoying the breeze off of the East River from Harbor View Lawn with the dazzling Manhattan skyline before you.

Bartow-Pell Mansion Museum and Gardens

895 Shore Road, Pelham Bay Park
(718) 885-1461

Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday
12:00pm – 4:00pm

Admission: Adults: $8, Seniors and students: $5, Children under 6 free.

Visiting Bartow-Pell Mansion Museum, with its splendid Greek Revival interiors and country setting in Pelham Bay Park, is a unique New York City experience. As the only grand 19th-century country house still in existence on Pelham Bay, the museum provides an important link to the social and architectural history of New York. Visitors may take guided tours of the mansion and carriage house, view the collection of furnishings, fine and decorative arts, and stroll the grounds and formal garden.

Bronx Culture Trolley

Hostos Community College
450 Grand Concourse near 149th
5:00pm – 9:00pm

A program of the Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA), the First Wednesday Bronx Culture Trolley was initially conceived as the first action toward creating the South Bronx "Cultural Corridor," an arts-related economic development plan positioning the lower Grand Concourse as a "Gateway to the Arts in the Bronx." The trolley provides people with a fun way to get around and attend cultural venues that they might not otherwise have visited.

Harlem Meer Fishing Central Park

Charles A. Dana Center, located on the north shore of the Meer

Catch and Release Fishing

Monday-Saturday: 10:00am - 4:00pm

(poles must be returned by 4:00pm)

Sunday: 10:00am - 2:00pm

(poles must be returned by 2:00pm)

Catch-and-release fishing at the Harlem Meer is a favorite family and community pastime. Fishing poles are available to borrow at the Charles A. Dana Center, located on the north shore of the Meer. Picture ID required; instruction and bait (corn kernels) are provided with the poles. The Harlem Meer is a thriving aquatic ecosystem that supports a wide variety of fish, waterfowl, turtles, plants and microorganisms. Some of the fish living in the Meer include largemouth bass, pumpkinseed sunfish, bluegill sunfish, carp and chain pickerel.

Bloomingdale Park

693 Ramona Avenue (Lenevar Avenue)

Staten Island, NY 10309

Staten Island's newest addition to its vast park inventory, Bloomingdale Park provides the first ball fields ever built on parks property south of Richmond Avenue. Most of the 138-acre park was left natural and passive for wildlife. Walking trails have been included for hiking enthusiasts, as well as scenic waterways. A portion of the park has been re-shaped to offer a baseball field, softball field, soccer field, basketball courts and a playground. A comfort station is also part of the amenities included in the new Bloomingdale Park, with stainless steel toilets and a modern ventilation system.

Clay Pit Ponds State Park

83 Nielsen Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10309

(718) 967-1976

The 260-plus-acre park holds a mixture of swamps, bogs, ponds, sand barrens, mature woodlands and spring fed streams. The abundant water supply supports a plethora of wildlife including many species of birds, reptiles, amphibians, and mammals. Facilities include hiking paths, horse trails and an administration building. Free environmental education programs are offered on Saturday. The park is open year-round.

Walker Park

88 Delafield Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10301

Walker Park holds a distinguished place in the history of New York cricket and tennis. Initially known as Livingston Park, the name was changed in 1934 to honor Lieutenant Randolph Walker Jr., who died in World War I. Walker was a distinguished member of the local cricket club, and was a good friend of Eugenius H. Outerbridge (1860–1932), the first chairman of the Port Authority (served 1921–1924). The change was the result of a petition sent to Alderman Dennis V. Corcoran by the officers of the Randolph Walker Post of the American Legion.
