The State's Personal Privacy Protection Law, which took effect September 1, 1984, states that we must tell you what the State will do with the information you give us about yourself and your family. We use the information to find out if you are eligible for the Home Energy Assistance Program and, if so, for how much. The section of the Law that gives us the right to collect the information about you is Section 21 of the Social Services Law. To make sure that you are getting all of the assistance you and your family are legally entitled to receive, we check with other sources to find out more about the information you have given us. For example:

- We may check to find out if you or anyone in your household were working. We do this by sending your name and Social Security Number to the State Department of Taxation and Finance, and also to known employers, to tell us whether you worked and, if so, how much you made.
- We may ask the State to check with the Unemployment Insurance Division to see if you or anyone in your household were getting unemployment benefits.
- We may check with banks to make sure we know about any income you or anyone in your household may have received.

Besides using the information you provided in this application, the State also uses the information to prepare statistics about all the people receiving Home Energy Assistance. This information is used for program planning and management. The information is used for quality control by the State to make sure local districts are doing the best job they can. It is used to verify who your energy supplier is and to make certain payments to such vendors. Additional information about HEAP and other human services programs can be found at mybenefits.ny.gov.

How will my benefit be paid?

If you are approved and you pay for heat, your payment will be sent to your heating fuel vendor. Your eligibility notice will include the name of the vendor. If the vendor listed is not correct, notify the local social services district immediately. In some cases, your benefit will be paid to your electric company if heat is included in your rent. Your notice will tell you the amount of the benefit, how it will be paid, and how it was calculated.

Vendors are not permitted to make deliveries until payment is received or until instructed to do so by the local Social Services District. Benefits may not be applied to prior deliveries for deliverable fuel sources. If you are in need of fuel before your vendor has received notification or payment, you must contact your local social services district.

Regular HEAP benefits are intended to be a one-time supplement to your annual energy costs and are not intended to replace your personal payments. You must continue to pay your energy bills.

What is a HEAP Emergency?

- You are out of fuel or have less than ¼ tank of oil, kerosene or propane, or less than a ten (10) day supply of other deliverable heating fuel.
- Your natural gas or electric heat has been shut off or is scheduled to be shut off.
- Applicant owned heating equipment is not working.

What if I have an emergency?

HEAP benefits can assist with the following emergencies:

LDSS-3421 (Rev. 5/23)

If you have a heating emergency and have applied for, but have not received, your regular benefit, you should contact your local social services district after the program opens. Whenever possible, regular HEAP benefits are used first to resolve an energy emergency.

Do not wait until you are out of heating fuel or your gas/electric service is off to request assistance. If your utility service is terminated, your utility company is not required to restore your service even if you are eligible for a HEAP benefit.

Fair Hearings:

You have certain rights when filing your HEAP application. You have the right to be told if your application is approved or denied within thirty (30) business days of the date that the HEAP certifier receives your completed and signed application.

The processing time for applications will not begin until program opening even though you may have received an application prior to the program opening date as a part of our outreach effort. You have the right to request a conference and/or a fair hearing if it has been more than thirty (30) business days since the HEAP certifier received your signed and completed application (or it has been more than thirty (30) business days since program opening if the certifier received your application prior to program opening) and you have not been told of the eligibility decision.

If you would like a conference, you should ask for one as soon as possible. At the conference, if it is discovered that a wrong decision was made, or if because of information you provide, the decision has changed our original decision, corrective action will be taken.

If you would like a conference, contact your local social services district at otda.ny.gov/programs/heap/contacts. This is only for requesting a conference. It is not how you ask for a fair hearing. If you ask for or have a conference, you are still entitled to a fair hearing.

The Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA) policy issuances and manuals are posted on the OTDA website at otda.ny.gov/legal. These issuances and manuals are available to you or your representative to determine whether a fair hearing should be requested or to prepare for a fair hearing. In addition, upon request to your local social services district, specific OTDA policy issuances and manuals will also be available to assist you or your representative.

If you live anywhere in New York State, you may request a Fair Hearing by telephone, fax, online, or by writing to the address below:

Verifying your identity

We will try to check your identity before Election Day, through the DMV number (driver's license number or non-driver ID number), or the last four digits of your social security number, which you will fill in Box 9.

If you do not have a DMV or Social Security number, you may use a valid photo ID, a current utility bill, bank statement, paycheck, government check or some other government document that shows your name and address. You may include a copy of one of those types of ID with this form.

If we are unable to verify your identity before Election Day, you will be asked for ID when you vote for the first time.

To complete this form:

It is a crime to procure a false registration or to furnish false information to the Board of Elections.

Box 9: You must make one selection. For questions refer to Verifying your identity above.

Box 10: If you have never voted before, write "None". If you can't remember when you last voted, put a question mark (?). If you voted before under a different name, put down that name. If not, write "Same".

Box 11: Check one box only. Political party enrollment is optional but that, in order to vote in a primary election of a political party, a voter must enroll in that political party, unless state party rules allow otherwise.
