Upon receipt of Medicaid, a lien may be filed and a recovery may be made against your real property under certain circumstances if you are in a medical institution and not expected to return home. Medicaid paid on your behalf may be recovered from persons who had legal responsibility for your support at the time medical services were obtained. Medicaid may also recover the cost of services and premiums incorrectly paid.

Federal and State laws provide that any transfer of assets for less than fair market value made by an individual or an individual's spouse, within the transfer of assets look-back period (or 60 months in the case of trust-related transfers) prior to the first of the month in which the individual is both in receipt of nursing facility services and determined otherwise eligible for Medicaid coverage of nursing facility services, may cause the individual to be ineligible for nursing facility services for a period of time.

As a condition of Medicaid coverage for nursing facility services, applicants are required to disclose a description of any interest the individual or the individual's spouse has in an annuity. This disclosure is required regardless of whether the annuity is irrevocable or a countable resource.

In addition to the purchase of an annuity, certain transactions made to an annuity by the applicant or the applicant's spouse on or after February 8, 2006, may be treated as a transfer unless:

- The State is named the remainder beneficiary in the first position for at least the amount of Medicaid paid on behalf of the annuitant; or
- The State is named in the second position after a community spouse or minor or disabled child, or in the first position if such spouse or representative of such child disposes of any such remainder for less than fair market value.

If documentation is not submitted verifying that the State has been named remainder beneficiary, you may be ineligible for coverage of nursing facility services.

If the annuity is a countable resource at the time of application, you/your spouse are not required to name the State as remainder beneficiary.
